Background: Prachi Dave is currently the Senior Attorney at the Public Defender Association (PDA). At PDA, Prachi manages the legal work in the Racial Disparity Project and the direct representation area of the Law Enforcement Assisted Diversion (LEAD) program, LEAD Legal Services. Prachi is also deeply involved in PDA's coalition-based criminal legal work. Prior to joining PDA, Prachi was a Staff Attorney at the American Civil Liberties Union of Washington (ACLU-WA) where she managed the Second Chances Project, a project focused on reentry in criminal legal reform. In that role she worked to reduce the barriers posed by prior criminal history through a combination of litigation and policy advocacy. Additionally, she was very involved in the advocacy work bringing attention to the problems related to legal financial obligations in Washington's criminal legal system. In that capacity, Prachi was involved in the legislative advocacy that resulted in reform of the system of legal financial obligations. Prior to joining the ACLU-WA, Prachi spent her first seven years as lawyer practicing as a public defender in Colorado, representing both juvenile and adult clients in hundreds of misdemeanor and felony cases. Prachi arrived many years ago to this country as an immigrant; she was born and raised in Nairobi, Kenya where her family still lives.

Professional and Clinical Experience

Public Defender Association, Seattle, WA, December 2018-present

Senior Attorney, Racial Disparities Project

Currently manage the legal department at the Public Defender Association, including direct representation of clients through Law Enforcement Assisted Diversion legal services, providing legal support to the Civil Survival Project and Community Justice Project, assisting in the representation of clients in the inquest process, and representing the Public Defender Association on issues pertaining to criminal legal reform.

American Civil Liberties Union of Washington, Seattle, WA, September 2015-December 2018

Staff Attorney, Second Chances Project

Managed the Second Chances Project, which was responsible for all reentry-related and criminal justice debt reform work at the American Civil Liberties Union of Washington. Strategically engaged in integrated advocacy alongside other staff members in order to achieve reform goals. Utilized advocacy tools such as litigation in both trial and appellate courts, amicus briefs, and rule-making, and mobilized and engaged in legislative efforts. Supervised interns and crafted public education materials on the impacts of criminal history on employment and housing.

Office of the Colorado State Public Defender, Colorado Springs and Brighton, CO, August 2008-September 2015

Senior State Public Defender

Represented adults charged with felonies, ranging from the lowest to highest-level felony classifications from the time of their first appearance to the ultimate resolution, through either a plea disposition or a trial by jury. Engaged in complex constitutional litigation including, but not limited to, witness identification issues, suppression of searches, seizures, and statements, discovery sanctions, pretrial evidentiary issues, expert testimony, and additional areas depending on the requirements of the particular case. Litigated and tried more than 50 felony trials, including homicides, sexual assaults, aggravated robberies, and child abuse cases. Supervised less experienced attorneys and interns.

Deputy State Public Defender, Immigration Liaison

Served as the designated Immigration Liaison in both Colorado Springs and Brighton offices. As part of the position, provided advice to the attorneys in two of the largest offices in the Colorado State Public Defender system regarding the immigration consequences of charges faced by clients and of plea dispositions offered by the prosecution. Worked with individual attorneys to design pleas aimed at avoiding negative immigration consequences. In conjunction with bar associations, organized CLEs to educate the broader legal population about the impact of criminal history on immigration status.
