Suzanne Burke is the President of Fremont Dock Company, which manages 60+ acres of industrial and commercial property in the Fremont neighborhood of Seattle. She is a highly active board member and/or fundraiser for many organizations, including Holy Names Academy, North Seattle Industrial Association, Wallingford Boys & Girls Club, Fremont Rotary, Seattle Police Foundation, and Seattle University. Suzie has founded several community organizations, including History House, a non-profit organization she and her mother founded to celebrate Seattle neighborhoods, and the Fremont Chamber of Commerce. She has been actively interested in Seattle Public Utilities since serving on the Utilities Committee of the Seattle Chamber of Commerce in the '90s. Suzie lives in the Ballard neighborhood in Seattle. She has three children and four grandchildren. Her interests include travel and facilitating introductions between people and organizations that "need" to know each other.
