Background: Victoria lives in the Skyway neighborhood and is currently a sophomore at Summit Sierra High School. A public charter school located in the International District. Victoria was very involved in advocating for her school to open and spent many hours going to Olympia to testify. She loves to volunteer in her community, and spends most of her weekends supporting different events in the Rainier Valley. Last year, she took a class in school called Civic Engagement and it really brought to her attention issues facing adults and youth today. She is especially interested in the homeless crisis that Seattle is facing right now.
