Background: Dan Torres has focused his career on systems work to support families and promote equity. Dan joined the Bezos Family Foundation (BFF) in October of 2019 to cultivate partnerships for the Vroom program. Vroom provides science-based tools to families and caregivers to further child development. He was the Executive Director of the Washington State Essentials for Childhood initiative, a cross systems, public private partnership with a vision that all children in Washington state thrive in safe, stable and nurturing relationships and environments. He also previously served as the Director of Policy and Partnerships at Thrive Washington. In that role he directed the community momentum strategy for 10 early learning regional coalitions and developed Thrive Washington's legislative agenda. Dan spent the beginning of his career focused on child welfare policy as an associate at the Center for the Study of Social Policy and at Casey Family Programs.
