Background: Jaden Zwick is an alumna of Gonzaga University where she double majored in Spanish and sociology with a certificate in leadership studies as an Act Six scholar. Jaden returned to King County after college to work as the Tacoma-Seattle Program Coordinator for the Act Six scholarship program. On the job, she pours her passion for educational equity into the leadership development of high-achieving young people while collaborating on higher education access initiatives. In her free time, she volunteers regularly with children in foster care, participates in the Community Leadership Institute through Puget Sound Sage, and can often be found baking treats with her roommates in Columbia City.
