PROFESSIONAL APPOINTMENTS

2014–present

Landscape Architect

National Park Service, Pacific West Regional Office

Prepare diverse planning documents, including land use and resource management plans, site plans, and special resource studies for parks in the NPS Pacific West Region.

Conduct site visits and field surveys to locate existing facilities, natural and cultural resources, viewshed qualities, transportation systems and visitor use patterns, and conditions relating to topography, soils, hydrology, vegetation, and climate.

Collect new data and analyze existing geographic data using global positioning (GPS) and geographic information systems (GIS) tools. Apply data to support geospatial, resource protection, and visitor use analysis and planning.

Develop, coordinate, and implement public involvement strategies for planning projects, including public scoping for general and unit management plans and special resource studies. Identify public involvement goals, desired outcomes, and the most efficient approaches for public engagement.

Prepare environmental compliance and impact analysis documents in compliance with the National Environmental Policy Act. Coordinate project compliance with other laws, such as Section 106 of the National Historic Preservation Act and Section 7 of the Endangered Species Act.

Produce maps and site concept plans, sketches, and other illustrations to graphically communicate development and preservation proposals.

2008–11

Landscape Designer and Project Manager

Exteriorscapes LLC, Seattle, WA

Designed custom landscapes for award-winning landscape design-build-maintenance firm.

Managed residential and institutional landscape installations up to $200,000 from initial client meetings through design development, permitting, construction documents, estimating, and full installation.

2007–08

Damaris Horan Fellow in Landscape History

The National Trust Plant Conservation Programme, Devon, UK

Researched and wrote about significant historic plants in cultural landscapes throughout Britain and Northern Ireland. Publicized the work of the Plant Conservation Programme through articles, lectures, and web pages.

2004–07

Garden Historian

The Mount Estate and Gardens, Lenox, MA

Conducted site-based and archival research to document the historical development, condition, and evolving management of the cultural landscape to support treatment decisions.

Helped secure grant funding to support landscape restoration and maintenance; coordinated and participated in maintenance of gardens and grounds.

Assisted in preparation of the cultural landscape report for Edith Wharton's gardens; organized first landscape symposium and accompanying publication, Edith Wharton and the American Garden.
