

Georgia's Law

Explain the best you can.
But be prepared to be misunderstood.
Seriously.
Unfortunately, explaining more does not always solve the problem.
This is a principle.
No one makes you learn it in church or school,
No Newton's Law or Golden Rule.
I want to help.
The sooner you learn this law, the better life gets.
So, here may be the best gift I can give you.
Georgia's Law:
Explain the best you can;
But be prepared to be misunderstood.

© Georgia S. McDade

Georgia's Time

In Georgia's Time there would have been no wars
No slavery nor slave castles
No Trail of Tears
No Jim Crow Laws
No Wounded Knee
No Holocaust
No Bataan Death March
No Japanese internment
No lynchings
No apartheid
No bombings
No assassinations
No miseducation

NO HATE PERIOD.

And we would all be healthy and happy all of the time.
But there is no Georgia's Time, or little that counts.
And, as such there is/was all of the above in God's Time.
Surely God in His omniscience has a plan.
And this plan permitted/allowed/failed to stop
all of the above.
Perhaps one day, in the same way, long after Georgia's Time, God's action and inaction may be clear.
For now the only answer is simple: in God's
Time, only in God's Time.

© Georgia S. McDade