Jordan Kiel AIA LEED AP – Associate, Project Manager Bassetti Architects

Jordan is passionate about the preservation and reuse of landmarked structures, and is well versed in the Secretary of the Interior's Standards for Rehabilitation. In just eight years working in the architectural profession, he has become an exceptional project leader with a rare combination of management, communication, and design skills. Jordan is a strong team member who will work with the Seattle Landmarks Board to guide applicants toward historically sensitive solutions.

Jordan has contributed to a number of projects that required close collaboration with the Landmarks Board, including re-purposing the Original Rainier Brewery into a production, office and retail space for Fran's Chocolates. Additionally, he is contributing to modernizations and additions to the landmarked Stewart Middle School and McDonald-Smith Buildings located in Tacoma. For both of these facilities, he has been instrumental in applying the Secretary of the Interior's Standards for Rehabilitation and presenting solutions to the Tacoma Landmarks Commission.
