Background: Alex Tang is an adjunct faculty member in the Basic and Transitional Studies Division at Seattle Central College. His research interests include but are not limited to the use of L1 in the second language classroom, sociolinguistics, and less commonly taught grammar structures such as multi word units and focus structures. He is currently researching second language acquisition among adult learners, as well as focusing on bilingual education efforts with Cantonese and English. He serves on the WAESOL Board as a member at-large, as well as on Seattle College's District Distance Learning committee and Seattle Central's College Council as a representative for the Basic and Transitional Studies Division. He is passionate about Human Rights and is an activist in the Hong Kong pro-Democracy movement.
