Seattle IT

2016 TECHNOLOGY MATCHING FUND AWARD

August 17, 2016

Organization	Description	Award
Children's Home Society of Washington/North Seattle Family Center	Lake City Court Computer Resources for All Increase computer lab access, resident volunteer involvement and technology programming for youth and adults in a highly diverse, low income community. Partners in the project include Literacy Source, the YMCA and Full Life Care. Contact: Ann Fuller, annf@chs-wa.org	$48,580
Coalition for Refugees from Burma	Digital Literacy for Immigrant/Refugee Parents Deliver a three-component technology access and training program in partnership with Somali Youth and Family Club, targeting immigrant and refugee parents of students enrolled in Seattle Public Schools. Contact: Mona Han, mona.t.han@gmail.com	$34,040
Community & Parents for Public Schools	Parent Volunteer Technology Mentorship Provide technology training for low-income and immigrant parents engaged in a Parent Volunteer Mentorship program. Parents will earn laptop computers after completing 100 hours of training and volunteer work at the school. Contact: Stephanie Jones, contact@cppsofseattle.org	$24,800
El Centro de la Raza	Mobile Computer Lab Develop a Mobile Computer Lab with 30 new laptops to deliver ongoing technology training and tutoring for low income youth engaged in a new After School Drop-In Program and for seniors in a Wellness and Congregate Meal Program. Contact: Lauren Kastanas, grants@elcentrodelaraza.org	$43,000
Full Life Care	Mobile Lab Project for Unserved Communities Nine Seattle Housing Authority communities that are not currently served by onsite computer labs will collaborate and share a mobile computer lab to provide technology access and training to their low income residents. Contact: Mike Pollack, mikep@fulllifecare.org	$44,640

Organization	Description	Award
Multimedia Resources and Training Institute	Equipment Upgrade for Mobile and Studio Multimedia Upgrade outdated video and computer equipment to provide multimedia services, both in a state-of-the-art studio and at locations throughout Seattle. Use laptops as a mobile lab to bring training to other nonprofits that do not have their own computer labs. Contact: Assaye Abunie, assayea@msn.com	$40,000
Na'ah Illahee Fund	Native Girls Code Conduct a year-long club for young native women to gain cultural knowledge and computer coding skills. Partners include the University of Washington Information School Digital Youth Lab and the Washington NASA Space Consortium. Susan Balbas, susan@naahillahee.org	$13,240
New Horizons	Computer Literacy Training Purchase 10 computers and provide training in partnership with Seattle Public Library to youth ages 13-23 experiencing homelessness. Offer certifications in Microsoft Office products, as well as guided resume writing and job exploration workshops. Contact Mary Steele, marys@nhmin.org	$10,560
SightConnection	Digital Training for the Visually Impaired Provide a Tablet Training Program to visually impaired adults enable them to be as engaged on-line as a fully sighted person and as connected digitally as anyone else. Contact: Emily Bader, ebader@sightconnection.org	$21,140
Urban League of Metropolitan Seattle	Summer University for African American Students Provide a 6-week Summer University program serving 60 at-risk African American middle and high school students. Provide academic enrichment and skill-building through a Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts, and Math (STEAM) curriculum on a college campus. Contact: Pamela Banks, pbanks@urbanleague.org	$40,000