2019 State Legislative Bulletin

March 11, 2019

Number 8

Weekly Overview

We have officially reached the halfway point in the 2019 legislative session! Both chambers were mostly on the floor last week debating and voting on bills that are in their house of origin. They were on the floor late into the night on most days and both chambers were on the floor on Saturday as well. All bills must pass off the floor of the chamber in which they were originally introduced by March 13th or they will be considered dead. This means House bills have to pass off the House floor and Senate bills off the Senate floor. Bills that pass off the floor in their house of origin will then flip sides and go through the same process they've been through in their house of origin. After Wednesday's house of origin cutoff, hearings will resume again as policy committees consider bills that have been sent over from the opposite house.

At this point almost 2,300 bills have been introduced this session, but only 1,010 made it past the house of origin fiscal cutoff on March 1st. You can see a list of bills that past fiscal cutoff here.

Upcoming Dates of Note:

- March 13, 2019 Last day to consider (pass) bills in house of origin (5 p.m.).
- April 3, 2019 Last day to read in committee reports (pass bills out of committee and read them into the record on the floor) from opposite house, except House fiscal committees and Senate Ways & Means and Transportation committees.
- April 9, 2019 Last day to read in opposite house committee reports (pass bills out of committee and read them into the record on the floor) from House fiscal committees and Senate Ways & Means and Transportation committees.
- April 17, 2019 Last day to consider (pass) opposite house bills (5 p.m.) (except initiatives and alternatives to initiatives, budgets and matters necessary to implement budgets, differences between the houses, and matters incident to the interim and closing of the session).
- April 28, 2019 Last day allowed for regular session under state constitution.

 After the 94th day, only initiatives, alternatives to initiatives, budgets and matters necessary to implement budgets, matters that affect state revenue, messages pertaining to amendments, differences between the houses, and matters incident to the interim and closing of the session may be considered.
