Q9

Please describe the connections you have in your community. Include any community advocacy, civic engagement, or organizational affiliations.

I started working in my community at a very young age. From volunteer at local food banks to organizing local political campaigns. But my biggest accomplishment would be being a strong advocate for the $15 minimum wage initiative and help my community, the Somali-American community, understand why supporting this initiative will uplift many people in our community. I also worked as a field coordinator for Ilhan Omar, who ran and won a congressional seat in Minnesota back in 2018. Currently, I am a volunteer with Somali Health Board and help them get the word out to the community about the benefits of taking the Covid-19 vaccine and eliminating the language barrier that often results in mistrust and misinformation.

Q10

Describe one topic you would like SPU's Customer Review Panel to address.

SOCIAL JUSTICE AND RACIAL INJUSTICE

Seattle Public Utilities actively seeks CRP members who represent the diverse experiences of SPU customers. Please describe how your experience as a SPU customer might lend a unique perspective to the CRP.

A Muslim and Somali-American, I was fortunate enough to work with diverse communities with different cultures and languages, and it allowed me to learn about cultures and see things from their own perspective. One unique perspective that I will bring to SPU is that I speak three languages fluently; I speak Somali, Arabic, and English.
