Background: Xochitl Wilder is a seventeen year old student recently graduated from The Center School and is close to earning an Associate's Degree at Seattle Central Community College. She then plans to pursue a degree in government at 4-year university. Xochitl has been on the Seattle Youth Commission for a year, serving on the Public Safety Committee. She co-founded the Junior State of America club at her high school, and was a devoted debater in my advanced placement American history course at Roosevelt High School. She has testified at a public hearing concerning homelessness and met with her district's representative to encourage the approval of a bill to protect the environment at Olympia. Xochitl hopes to engage the public in city government to form a true "by the people, for the people" system and involve police in lower income communities through seminars and late night teen kits to prevent profiling and lower crime rates.
