- Knowledge of the guidelines, ordinances and standards set to guide the preservation of the Pike Place Market
- Firsthand experience of owning and working in the Market for over twenty years

EXPERIENCE

Building Manager

The Champion Building | Seattle, WA | November 2016 - Current

- The building was bought by my grandfather in the early 1950's. A self-taught artist and entrepreneur, he created the first display company west of the Mississippi
- I began as a toddler, picking up sequins on the costume floor and would continue in the world of fashion working for local designers after graduating from the University of Washington
- Since high school, I was taught the business side of owning a building. However, it was not until college where I truly honed my bookkeeping and spreadsheet making skills
- Since my father, Dave Martin's illness and subsequent passing away, I have taken on full responsibility of stewardship of the property. Negotiating leases, financials, overseeing routine maintenance, facilitating repairs and improvements. In addition, I continue to foster good relationships with our current tenants, neighbors and contractors on a daily basis.

Business Owner

Taxi Dogs | Seattle, WA | May 1997 - Current

- Created this business after graduating from the University of Washington. It was named after The Dollar Taxicab Company which our building was built for 1928
- Developed the menu, oversee the day to day operations, financials and staffing
- Written up in multiple magazines and publications

Business Owner

Pear Delicatessen & Shoppe | Seattle, WA | February 2003 - September 2017

- First developed as Pike Place Grocery & Deli and then we changed the name to Pear Delicatessen & Shoppe in 2005
- Created as a specialty food store & deli. All our products were hand selected and locally sourced from small family owned and operated business's. Everything served in the deli was made in house and sourced from small family farms
- My responsibilities included: management of staff, customers relations, vendor relations, product development, displays, social media, A/R, A/P, catering, purchasing etc.
- Written up in numerous magazines, publications, as well as being featured on TV. Pear was visited by countless celebrities and professional athletes over the course of the business.
