EXPERIENCE

WORLD AFFAIRS COUNCIL OF SEATTLE

2014 PRESENT

President and CEO

- Expand the Council's visibility in the community by building vibrant and meaningful professional, cultural, corporate, charitable, and other community networks.
- Utilize networks to ensure policymakers at local, state, and federal level are participants in the World Affairs Council's community outreach.
- Create and develop strategies to ensure that Council programs are well understood among the Council's diverse constituencies and created a greater stake in the Council's mission and vision among stakeholders. Identify and recruit new stakeholders and supporters with whom the Council's mission and vision resonates.
- Cultivate and maintain key relationships among policymakers, opinion leaders, business community, philanthropic community, and community leaders.
- Serve as the public face of the Council by regularly giving presentations and speeches to promote the activities of the Council to increase relevance, interest, engagement, support, and membership.
- Ensure a broad range of high-quality and relevant programs to a diverse cross-section of the community.
- Maintain a working knowledge of, and active engagement in, significant national and international developments and trends and integrate those into the strategic planning and programs of the Council.
- Provide financial oversight for the Council's budget, including maintaining strong internal controls and effective and efficient use of the Council's resources
- Initiate, build, and maintain community and partnership relationships that support the Council's mission, vision and programs.

INDEPENDENT DIPLOMAT

2013 - PRESENT

Director of External Relations

- Led and implemented the organization's outreach and engagement with foundations, individuals, and other key donor audiences in the United States and abroad. Created institution's new foundation and individual donor strategies.
- Raised the organization's public and institutional profile with a broad range of audiences -- donors, policymakers, opinion leaders, and media.
- Directed institutional communications and external messaging.
- Grew and broadened support for and a deeper understanding of the organization's work among existing and new audiences.
- Served on the senior management team, helping formulate and implement the organization's strategic plans, including management of personnel and resources.
- Responsible for board stewardship and development; vastly improving the quantity and quality of information provided to the board for and between board meetings. Created and instituted board development strategy.
