Background: The Lady B is fully dedicated to the growth and integrity of Seattle’s varied LGBT communities with a professed focus on those that identify as trans/gender non-conforming, women, people of color, youth, low income, and working class. With a joint degree in Dance and Political Science from Middlebury College, The Lady B has a particularly nuanced appreciation for how policies and legislation manifest in the lived intersectional experiences of protected though historically marginalized classes. Currently serving on the Ingersoll Gender Center Board of Directors as the Special Events Chair and recently named member of the Fundraising Committee, The Lady B is fully invested in the holistic progress and equity of our city on a structural level. Driven by the need to connect with and support the LGBTQ community, The Lady B has worked with organizations like: Three Dollar Bill Cinema, Gay City Health Project, The Seattle Public Library, the Capitol Hill Chamber of Commerce, Seattle Amistad School, Harborview Medical Center, Gender Justice League, Seattle Trans Pride, the Seattle Erotic Arts Festival, the Foundation for Sex Positive Culture, and the Department of Parks and Recreation. Each instance of interaction with these pillars of Seattle has afforded The Lady B an opportunity to lend voice to a perspective that was not already present yet appreciated. And though enriched by the personal connections and grassroots community work, The Lady B also feels a call to further develop her capacity as a community organizer.
