1. BILL SUMMARY

Legislation Title: AN ORDINANCE relating to taxation; imposing a local sales and use tax to fund investments in affordable and supportive housing; adding new Sections 5.60.025 and 5.60.027 to the Seattle Municipal Code; amending Section 5.60.030 of the Seattle Municipal Code; and ratifying and confirming certain prior acts.

Summary and background of the Legislation: The Executive is proposing this legislation to provide additional revenue for affordable housing. The State enacted legislation, SHB 1406 (published as Chapter 338, Laws of 2019), that allows cities and counties that have passed certain qualifying local taxes, such as the City’s 2016 housing levy, to impose a local sales and use tax for 20 years provided that the revenue is spent on building new or rehabilitating existing affordable housing units, or providing operating and maintenance subsidies for new units of affordable or supportive housing. Affordable housing and services may only be provided to those whose income is at or below 60% of the median income of the City. Participating cities and counties can bond against future revenue for the purposes of this legislation and repay the bonds. This legislation is necessary because the City of Seattle must adopt a resolution of intent to adopt legislation to authorize the maximum capacity of the local sales and use tax six months after the effective date of SHB 1406 or January 28, 2020 and must enact legislation to enact the tax within twelve months of the effective date of SHB 1406. .

communities? What is the Language Access plan for any communications to the public?

This legislation is aimed at providing additional resources to support the production, preservation, or operation of affordable housing and permanent supportive housing serving Seattle residents and families earning incomes at or below 60% of the local median. Seattle residents experiencing severe housing cost burden, displacement, and homelessness are disproportionately people of color and represent some of the most vulnerable or historically disadvantaged communities in our city. The City of Seattle is committed to affirmatively furthering fair housing, which includes increasing affordable housing options, ending segregation and discrimination, and addressing displacement. Increasing investments in affordable housing and permanent supportive housing is critical to addressing these and other long-standing racial disparities.

- g. If this legislation includes a new initiative or a major programmatic expansion: What are the specific long-term and measurable goal(s) of the program? How will this legislation help achieve the program's desired goal(s).

This legislation creates a new initiative that allows the City to retain local sales and use tax for 20 years to build new or rehabilitate existing affordable housing units, or providing operating and maintenance subsidies for new units of affordable or supportive housing. The Office of Housing will monitor the use of these funds in conjunction with annual investment reports, which track progress toward Citywide goals for production and preservation of affordable housing.
