*Rule VII.H.3 of the General Rules and Procedures of the Seattle City Council requires that regular standing committee meetings are suspended (canceled) from the time the Council's Select Budget Committee receives the Mayor's proposed budget (typically the end of September) to the time the Council adopts a budget (typically the third week of November). Special standing committee meetings may be called:

- If review of a legislative action is required within a set time (e.g., quasi-judicial actions with 90-day deadlines for Council review); or
- Upon the approval of the President and the Chair of the Select Budget Committee.

Section 2. The duties of the standing committees are as follows:

Affordable Housing, Neighborhoods and Finance Committee: To provide policy direction and oversight and to deliberate and make recommendations on legislative matters relating to:

- housing policies and programs, investing and promoting the development and preservation of affordable housing;
- neighborhoods, including neighborhood planning, engagement and outreach, funding opportunities, and historic preservation;

- 1           – the financial management and policies of the City and its agents, including the
- 2           operating and capital budgets, levies, taxes, revenue, audits, and judgments and
- 3           claims against the City (the Affordable Housing, Neighborhoods and Finance
- 4           Committee is the Finance Committee required by the Seattle City Charter);
- 5           – oversight of the City’s public works construction projects except as otherwise
- 6           specified;
- 7           – the City Employees’ Retirement System;
- 8           – the City Auditor;
- 9           – finance and administrative services of the City, including the Seattle Animal Shelter,
- 10          the City’s fleets and facilities, the Customer Service Bureau, and other
- 11          administrative functions; and
- 12          – City personnel issues, including labor-management relations, collective bargaining
- 13          agreements, and other issues related to salary rates, hours, and other conditions of
- 14          employment.

15           Civil Rights, Utilities, Economic Development and Arts Committee: To provide policy
16          direction and oversight and to deliberate and make recommendations on legislative matters 17          relating to:

- 18          – civil rights issues, including labor standards and improving access to employment
- 19          and housing;
- 20          – water, drainage, wastewater, and solid waste services provided by Seattle Public
- 21          Utilities (SPU), including SPU environmental services and utility rates, regional
- 22          water resources, endangered species recovery plans, waterway cleanup, and green
- 23          stormwater infrastructure;

- 1           – economic development policies and programs; and
- 2           – arts and cultural activities, nightlife issues, and special events.

3           Education, Equity and Governance Committee: To provide policy direction and oversight
4 and to deliberate and make recommendations on legislative matters relating to:

- 5           – education and early learning initiatives, including the City’s Families and Education
6 Levy and the Seattle Preschool Program, with a goal of improving City schools and 7 student success rates and reducing achievement gaps;
- 8           – regional, state, federal, and other governmental matters including Charter review, the 9 Office of Intergovernmental Relations, and rules of the City Council;
- 10          – issues related to governance and racial and social equity in underserved 11 communities;
- 12          – City information technology planning, implementation, and organization; cable
13 telecommunications services and planning; broadband telecommunications planning
14 and implementation; technology grants; Seattle Channel; seattle.gov; and citizen 15 technology literacy and access; and
- 16          – ethics and elections.

17          Energy and Environment Committee: To provide policy direction and oversight and to 18 deliberate and make recommendations on legislative matters relating to:

- 19          – Seattle City Light, including but not limited to City Light finances, energy utility 20 rates, resource matters, energy policy, regional matters, air pollution regulations, and 21 alternative energy sources; and

- 1           – urban sustainability, including the Office of Sustainability and Environment, climate 2           protection, stewardship, conservation programs, district energy, green buildings, and 3           food policy.
