

ENGAGING K-12 IN SEXUAL VIOLENCE PREVENTION

RACHEL TAYLOR | KCSARC | RTAYLOR@KCSARC.ORG

KCSARC HAS DEVELOPED RESOURCES THAT ENCOURAGE SCHOOLS TO:

- Effectively support student survivors of trauma
- Create academic spaces that are accessible to all students, regardless of trauma history
- Engage in meaningful violence prevention efforts

BOTH TOOLS ARE AVAILABLE FREE OF CHARGE AT WWW.KCSARC.ORG/EDUCATORS

For hard copies or to schedule an educator training contact education@kcsarc.org

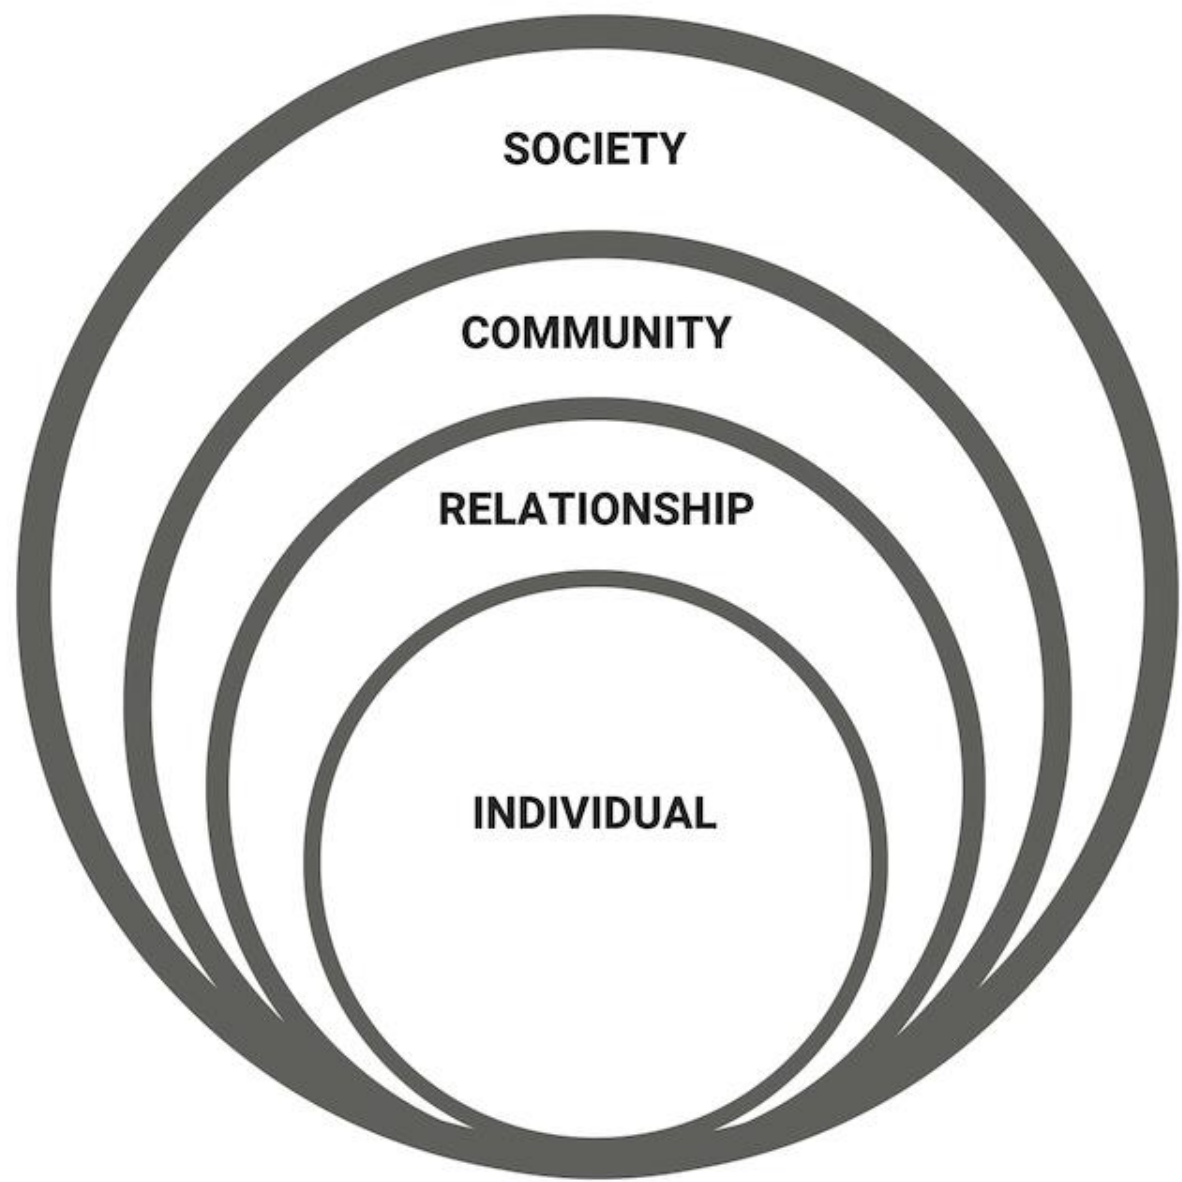

LAUNCH PAD

Engaging Elementary Schools
in Violence Prevention

CREATING

Trauma-Informed Classrooms

SOCIETY

COMMUNITY

RELATIONSHIP

INDIVIDUAL

GOAL:

ASSIST SCHOOL
COMMUNITIES IN PROVIDING
THE MOST EFFECTIVE
SUPPORT OF STUDENT
SURVIVORS

- Understanding sexual assault dynamics
- Appropriate responses to student disclosures
- Trauma-informed approaches to mandated reporting
- Confidentiality
- Community support

GOAL:

CREATE TRAUMA-INFORMED SPACES FOR ALL STUDENTS

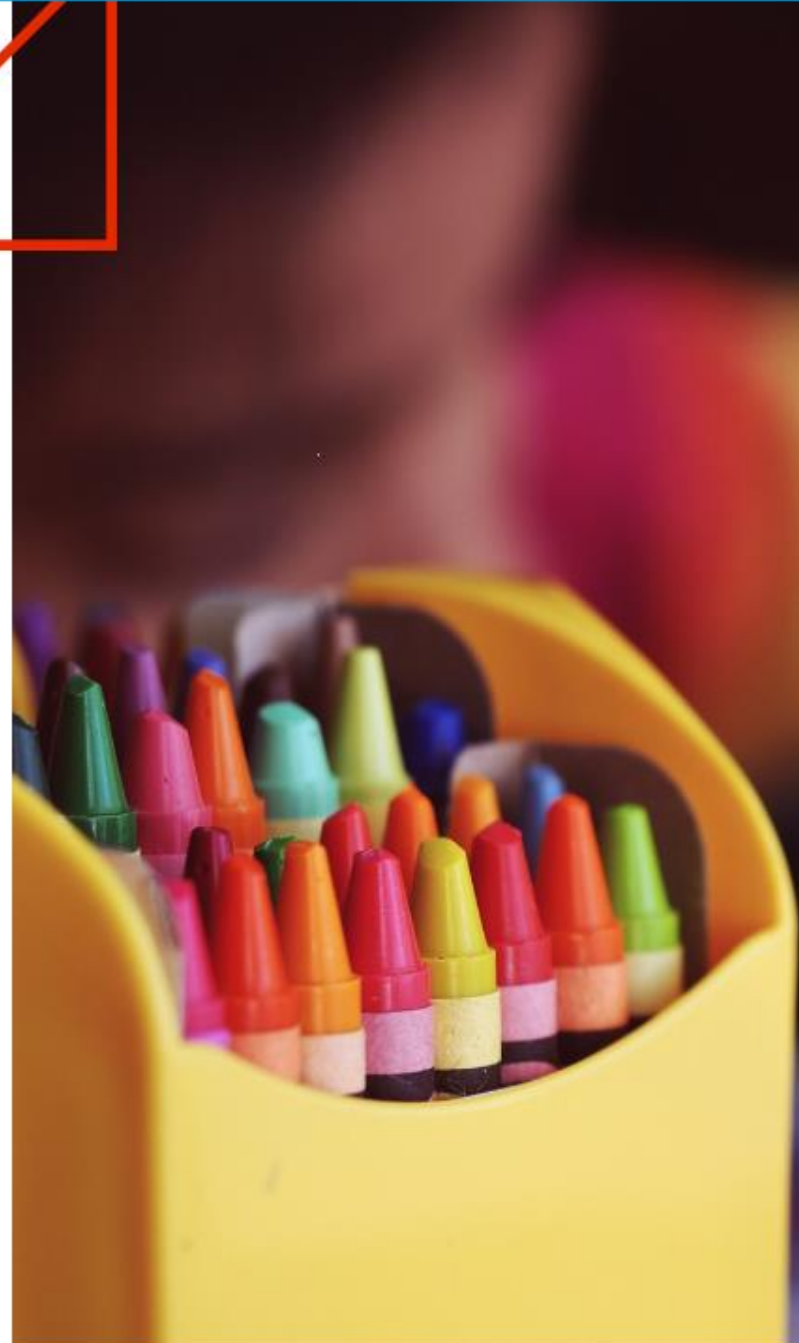

- Clear expectations and boundaries
- Empowering students to engage in self-care
- Effort to recognize potential triggers
- Building connection with students
- Leaving the door open

GOAL:

TRAIN SCHOOLS TO ENGAGE IN MEANINGFUL VIOLENCE
PREVENTION EFFORTS

- Multi-level
- Developmentally appropriate
- Tied to prevention theory and research
- Long-term, in depth
- Formal and informal

PREVENTION AS A COMMUNITY

- Already established structures that support prevention goals
- School values and expectations

Positive attitude

Respect all

Improve everyday

Dedicated learners

Encourage others

- Daily culture-shifters

PREVENTION WITHIN RELATIONSHIPS

- Building educator-student connection
- Parents + caregivers
- School volunteers
- Utilizing student leadership

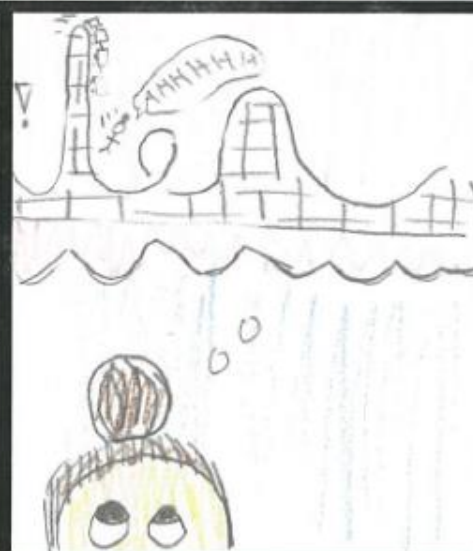

PREVENTION IN THE CLASSROOM

- Developmentally appropriate lesson planning + conversations about prevention-related topics
- Formal and informal
- Modeling
- Frequent
- Be engaged and curious
- Learn alongside students

TACKLING TOPICS

KCSARC encourages schools to engage students in both formal and informal ways on the topics of:

- BOUNDARIES + CONSENT
- HEALTHY RELATIONSHIPS
- DRAMA, BULLYING, HARASSMENT, AND "JUST JOKING"
- BREAKING DOWN STEREOTYPES
- POWER, PRIVILEGE, AND OPPRESSION
- EMPATHY

KCSARC AS A RESOURCE

24-hour
resource line
1.888.99.VOICE
(86423)

KCSARC services are available to all survivors and their support networks
within King County

Prevention support, consultation, and
resources
education@kcsarc.org