Background: Yeggy is a Seattle visual artist who created public art murals and mosaics that adorn: Parks, banks, residences, restaurants, and museums and whose work has been widely exhibited throughout Africa, Europe and the United States of America. Yeggy's vision is to provoke questions about natural cycles, provide a sense of place and to reflect on the movement of time. His paintings are personal and positive contacts for vibrant thoughts and spiritual moments. In Public art Yeggy uses all kind of materials metal, stone, glass, tile, paint, and wood; to reinterpret the abstract, cyclical nature of all things. Sharing his work with spaces of infrastructure is the synthesis of a long-term relationship and embedded in it, the very moment in history that prolongs its memory in our minds. Yeggy's lofty compositions are often the result of contemplative explorations that go far beyond his mind and deep within, where his emotions await the moment of their expression. Through the artist's appreciation and vision comes a world unique to its creator with its elected symbols and recurrent themes. Faced with the experiences of life Yegizaw's inspiration comes from what has stayed close to his heart. Currently, Yeggy is the Art Program Director at DNDA a nonprofit community organization. He is active in the communities organizing art programs and activities for Seattle youth. www.yeggystudio.com info@yeggystudio.com
