Area Agencies on Aging—created under the Older Americans Act of 1965—are responsible for local planning, coordination and implementation of aging services. Washington State has 13 Area Agencies on Aging, including the Snohomish County Division of Long Term Care and Aging, Aging and Disability Services (Seattle-King County), and Pierce County Community Connections Aging and Disability Resources.

Every four years, each Area Agency on Aging develops a four-year plan to chart their course in creating an elder-friendly community. King, Pierce and Snohomish counties are collaborating on three public forums that will help inform development of specific sections of their 2016-2019 Area Plans on Aging. We invite you to attend any or all of the forums to let us know what you think about the highlighted topics.
