Background: For more than 20 years, Gloria Connors has actively produced special events, concerts, and a wide variety of cultural happenings. One of Connors' key strengths is the ability to take a client's initial idea and apply her conceptual development and strategic planning skills to create an unforgettable experience. She strives to actualize innovative ideas tailored to each event while sustaining the uniqueness of a community to build culturally rich experiences for the client and attendees alike. Connors exudes a passion for producing and driving inspiration starting every event with the simple ask of, "How can I help?" Based in Seattle since 1997, Connors was originally raised in the entertainment capital of Los Angeles where she got an early start in the music business. Upon graduating from California State University Long Beach with a Bachelors of Arts degree in Communications, she advanced to the role of coordinating technical production for touring acts. These acquired skills led Connors to serve for over a decade as a sound engineer and production manager for numerous national and international tours. These skills have given Connors a unique perspective on event production, thus creating a sustainably and reputable business model – and experience for her clients. Ms. Connors has worked closely with the operations and special event teams at the Seattle Center and is enthusiastic about the opportunity at continuing to serve on the Seattle Center Advisory Commission and to expand her engagement with the community. It is her hope to be a part the continual growth of Seattle Center's cultural landscape.
