1. BILL SUMMARY

Legislation Title: AN ORDINANCE relating to a public safety bill of rights for the Seattle public; renumbering Subchapter VI as Subchapter V and creating a new Subchapter VI in Chapter 3.28 of the Seattle Municipal Code.

Summary and background of the Legislation: If passed, this legislation would codify the Seattle Police Department’s policies protecting the rights of public observers of police activity, and would create a cause of action against the City for interference with the observation of or recording of such activity.

2. CAPITAL IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM

___ This legislation creates, funds, or amends a CIP Project.

3. SUMMARY OF FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS

___ This legislation does not have direct financial implications.

There will be some departmental administrative cost in training officers in implementation of the requirements.

4. OTHER IMPLICATIONS

- a) Does the legislation have indirect or long-term financial impacts to the City of Seattle that are not reflected in the above?
Yes.
- b) Is there financial cost or other impacts of not implementing the legislation?
To the extent that passage of the legislation would have the intended benefits of making observer protections more permanent and create a cause of action as a remedy for the observer, not implementing the legislation would have the impact of failing to achieve those objectives.
- c) Does this legislation affect any departments besides the originating department?
The Seattle Police Department would be directly affected as it is the subject of the legislation. The Seattle Police Department, City Attorney’s Office and possibly the Seattle Municipal Court could be involved in the course of defending against a cause of action.

d) Is a public hearing required for this legislation?

No.

e) Does this legislation require landlords or sellers of real property to provide information regarding the property to a buyer or tenant?

No.

f) Is publication of notice with The Daily Journal of Commerce and/or The Seattle Times required for this legislation?

No.

g) Does this legislation affect a piece of property?

No.

h) Please describe any perceived implication for the principles of the Race and Social Justice Initiative. Does this legislation impact vulnerable or historically disadvantaged communities?

Race and social justice issues are often closely tied to situations of police conduct that the public would be interested in observing. As such, greater protections in this arena for the public has a direct bearing on race and social justice, including vulnerable or disadvantaged communities.

i) If this legislation includes a new initiative or a major programmatic expansion: What are the long-term and measurable goals of the program? Please describe how this legislation would help achieve the program's desired goals.

N/A.
