

REVISED AMENDMENT #4
CM HARRELL

Upon request, the Office of Labor Standards, in partnership with business and community organizations contracting with the City, will provide technical assistance to employers on implementation of this Chapter 14.22, including but not limited to review of employer record-keeping systems for documenting compliance. The intent of technical assistance is to support employers and employees with methods or procedures for implementation that are effective, efficient and not unreasonably burdensome or impractical.