CONTACT

Christa joined the Perkins+Will Seattle office after graduating from Virginia Tech. Engaged in every stage of the design process, she focuses her practice on projects that are meaningful to society: from large research buildings to urban accommodations for the homeless. Her passion for community engagement can be seen through the Seattle office's Social Purpose efforts, which she co-chairs. Christa is an integral part of the team that has fostered an ongoing relationship with Mary's Place, a Seattle-based non-profit, contributing to the development of three new emergency overnight shelters since 2013.
