

Adjusted language for Burgess Amendment 6 B(3):

14.22.050 Compensation for work schedule changes

Additional hours that an employer requests employees who are currently working, through an in-person group communication, to work in order to address present and unanticipated customer needs, so long as the hours are consecutive to the hours the employee is currently working and the employee consents to take the hours. ~~the employee consents to work as the result of an in-person group communication initiated by the employer to address present or unanticipated customer needs.~~

Adjusted language for Burgess and Herbold Amendment 7 E(4):

Section 14.22.050 does not apply when an employee consents to work additional hours, on less than 14 days' notice, when the employee is accepting a long-term schedule change based on an access to hours posting. ~~on an access to hours list maintained by the employer.~~
