Brian Walters, LEED AP Architect

A rigorous commitment to architectural design and community engagement has afforded me the skills necessary to make a positive impact on the built environment. I am eager to conduit community and design voices in the design review process and continue to enrich the Design Review Program's relevance within our community.

experience Olson Kundig Architect 03.2013-present

I contribute to design teams as project manager and project architect on a wide variety of architectural work including commercial high-rise, mixed-use projects, multi-family residential, single family residential, and commercial tenant improvements. Significant projects include:

1900 First Avenue mixed-use high-rise, Seattle, WA
Copine Restaurant commercial TI, Seattle WA
8899 Beverly Blvd multi-family residential, Los Angeles, CA
Rosewood Townhomes multi-family residential, Los Angeles, CA

Space.City Board Member 07.2015-present

Space.city is a seattle-based non-profit devoted to elevating the design dialogue within its community through educational events and outreach.

CollinsWoerman Designer II 02.2007-02.2013

In addition to contributing to design teams on project varying in scale and type, my responsibilities extended to the improvement of design and technical quality acting on the design best-practice and technical best-practice committees.

Washington State University Graduate Teaching Assistantship 8.2005-12.2006

Through the delivery of lectures and instruction of introductory architecture courses, students received training in the areas of sketching, project conceptualization, and composition.
