1. BILL SUMMARY

Legislation Title:

AN ORDINANCE relating to taxation; imposing an employee hours tax; adding a new Chapter 5.38 to Title 5 of the Seattle Municipal Code; and amending Sections 5.30.010, 5.55.010, 5.55.040, 5.55.060, 5.55.150, 5.55.165, 5.55.220, and 5.55.230 of the Seattle Municipal Code.

Summary and background of the Legislation:

In 2007, the City of Seattle imposed an Employee Hours Tax to support transportation investments. The tax included exemptions for businesses whose employees commuted by mass transit, bicycle, or walking. The tax was repealed at the end of 2009.

This legislation would re-establish the Employee Hours Tax at $100 per full-time equivalent employee as a general taxation measure. The legislation includes an exemption for businesses with a taxable gross income of $5,000,000 or less and certain other businesses as defined by state law. The tax would go into effect on January 1, 2019.

The tax is anticipated to generate $25 million annually, beginning in 2019. The tax will be administered by the Department of Finance and Administrative Services; it is anticipated that appropriations and position authority to administer this tax will be provided in the 2018 budget or in subsequent budget legislation.

4. OTHER IMPLICATIONS

a) Does the legislation have indirect or long-term financial impacts to the City of Seattle that are not reflected in the above?

(If yes, explain here.)

The change in tax burden may affect the future growth of economic activity in the city.

b) Is there financial cost or other impacts of not implementing the legislation?

(Estimate the costs to the City of not implementing the legislation, including estimated costs to maintain or expand an existing facility or the cost avoidance due to replacement of an existing facility, potential conflicts with regulatory requirements, or other potential costs or consequences.)

No.

c) Does this legislation affect any departments besides the originating department?

(If so, please list the affected department(s) and the nature of the impact (financial, operational, etc.), and indicate which staff members in the other department(s) are aware of the proposed legislation.)

Finance and Administrative Services would be responsible for administrating the tax.

d) Is a public hearing required for this legislation?

(If yes, what public hearing(s) have been held to date, and/or what public hearing(s) are planned for the future?)

No

e) Does this legislation require landlords or sellers of real property to provide information regarding the property to a buyer or tenant?

(If yes, please describe the measures taken to comply with RCS 64.06.080.)

No

f) Is publication of notice with The Daily Journal of Commerce and/or The Seattle Times required for this legislation?

(For example, legislation related to sale of surplus property, condemnation, or certain capital projects with private partners may require publication of notice. If you aren't sure, please check with your lawyer. If publication of notice is required, describe any steps taken to comply with that requirement.)

g) Does this legislation affect a piece of property?

(If yes, and if a map or other visual representation of the property is not already included as an exhibit or attachment to the legislation itself, then you must include a map and/or other visual representation of the property and its location as an attachment to the fiscal note. Place a note on the map attached to the fiscal note that indicates the map is intended for illustrative or informational purposes only and is not intended to modify anything in the legislation.)

No

h) Please describe any perceived implication for the principles of the Race and Social Justice Initiative. Does this legislation impact vulnerable or historically disadvantaged communities?

(If yes, please explain how this legislation may impact vulnerable or historically disadvantaged communities. Using the racial equity toolkit is one way to help determine the legislation's impact on certain communities.)

No.

i) If this legislation includes a new initiative or a major programmatic expansion: What are the long-term and measurable goals of the program? Please describe how this legislation would help achieve the program's desired goals.

(This answer should highlight measurable outputs and outcomes.)

No

j) Other Issues: None

List attachments/exhibits below: None
