(1) $1,800,000 should fund enhanced 24/7 shelter with supportive services and case management serving 75 individuals nightly, resembling intensive staffing similar to the Navigation Center;

(2) $820,000 should fund 16-hour shelter or interim housing for 100 individuals nightly;

(3) $500,000 should be used to fund one time capital costs for a program serving homeless and unstably housed people, such as the Lazarus Day Center of Catholic Community Services. Lazarus Day Center provides men and women over the age of 50 with services such as rapid rehousing, and has bilingual staff who speak Amharic, Somali, and Spanish; and

(4) $180,000 should support overnight shelters, day centers, and hygiene services, to improve access hours for services such as laundry, food, and internet, at overnight shelters, and augment case management staffing with a goal of a maximum ratio of one staff to twenty guests.
