

CITY OF SEATTLE

ORDINANCE _____

COUNCIL BILL _____

..title

AN ORDINANCE amending Ordinance 125475, which adopted the 2018 Budget; changing appropriations to various departments and budget control levels; all by a 3/4 vote of the City Council.

..body

WHEREAS, the Department of Finance and Administrative Services intends to sell property at 1933 Minor Avenue, currently home to the Seattle Information Technology Department's Communication Shop, and has submitted legislation to sell said property as Council Bill

          ; and

WHEREAS, the functions of the Communication Shop will need to be relocated to other facilities, at cost to The City of Seattle (City); and

WHEREAS, Seattle is in the midst of a housing affordability crisis, and the number of residents experiencing homelessness in both sheltered and unsheltered living arrangements has grown dramatically; and

WHEREAS, in accordance with Pathways Home, the City embraces the evidence-based Housing

First philosophy, which recognizes the basic necessity of stable housing as a foundation for successful engagement in supportive services and other appropriate supports. This is a commitment critical to investing in what works and with a singular focus of moving people to stable housing, as well as shifting to a system able to nimbly respond and invest resources across interventions based on current need and best-practices; and

WHEREAS, various City departments have committed to participating in an Innovative Housing

Strategies Subcabinet, which will develop a Bridge Housing Investment Strategy to 1 increase the supply of interim or “bridge” shelter and housing for people currently living 2 unsheltered; and

3 WHEREAS, various City departments have developed the Seattle Rental Housing Assistance
4 Pilot, in partnership with the Seattle Housing Authority, which will aim to prevent 5 homelessness by providing housing stability services to vulnerable households on the 6 Seattle Housing Authority’s Housing Choice Voucher waitlist that are most at risk of 7 becoming homeless; and

8 WHEREAS, the Innovative Housing Strategies Subcabinet, the Bridge Housing Investment
9 Strategy, and the Seattle Rental Housing Assistance Pilot are outlined in Resolution 10           ; and

11 WHEREAS, due to recent population growth in the South Lake Union and Denny Triangle 12 neighborhoods, there is an ever-increasing need to site an additional fire station in one of 13 those neighborhoods, and the City intends to identify and acquire property in that 14 neighborhood to serve; and

15 WHEREAS, the city also needs to upgrade its freshwater Marine Emergency Response facility 16 and there is an opportunity to collocate this facility with the land-based fire station at a 17 South Lake Union location; NOW, THEREFORE,
