Background: Dorian is interested in working with the Commission on issues that affects her disability community. Due to an accident several years ago, she was left unable to walk. She has overcome a lot of barriers and has gone on with her life to be a part of a Kayaking club, which has helped her to deal with her life after her accident. She is not letting it get her down but turning it into a positive. A very important thing happened to her in 2016. She qualified for the Special Olympics and it made her so happy and proud that all the work she put in to it, paid off. She was proud to be on the 2016 World Championship Team Para-Canoe: Sprint Kayaking and looks forward to working hard on the Commission.
