CITY OF SEATTLE

ORDINANCE 125576

COUNCIL BILL 119240

AN ORDINANCE relating to the Human Rights code; extending the amount of time available to a person to file a charge with the Office for Civil Rights regarding unfair employment, public accommodations, and contracting processes; specifying that discrimination includes harassment; and amending Sections 14.04.030, 14.04.090, 14.06.020, 14.06.050, 14.08.020, 14.10.020, and 14.10.060 of the Seattle Municipal Code.

WHEREAS, sexual violence, discrimination, and harassment have been in the national and local spotlight recently, and the City of Seattle's employees and residents have and likely are experiencing sexual discrimination and harassment in varied facets of their lives; and

WHEREAS, sexual harassment is illegal discrimination based on sex, and harassment based on race, sexual orientation, national origin, religion, or other protected classes is also illegal discrimination that is prohibited by Chapters 14.04, 14.06, 14.08 and 14.10 of the Seattle Municipal Code; and

WHEREAS, sexual harassment in the workplace is in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. 2000e, et seq., chapter 49.60 RCW, Seattle Municipal Code Chapter 14.04, and City policy; and

WHEREAS, harassment will not be tolerated by the City of Seattle, as the City is committed to fostering an environment free from discrimination, promoting equal employment opportunities, and equitable treatment, in line with the City's race and social justice values and City policy; and

WHEREAS, the Mayor and City Council adopted policies and procedures governing harassment complaints in 1989 through Resolution 28119 and have revised and updated them periodically since that time; and

1 WHEREAS, City employees and Seattle residents who allege sexual harassment under the City's 2 fair employment, unfair public accommodations, or fair contracting laws and wish to file
3 an administrative charge with the Seattle Office for Civil Rights must do so 180 days 4 after the occurrence of the alleged incident, and if filing an administrative charge under 5 the City's unfair housing laws, must file within one year of the alleged incident; and

6 WHEREAS, state and federal statutes provide a longer period of time for persons alleging
7 harassment to file claims—the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) 8 allows a person to file a charge of discrimination within 300 days of the alleged incident
9 if there is a state or local law with prohibitions similar to federal law and the Fair 10 Housing Act allows a person to file a charge of discrimination with one year of the 11 alleged incident; and

12 WHEREAS, a person alleging sexual harassment should have longer than 180 days to decide 13 whether to file an administrative charge with the Seattle Office for Civil Rights; and

14 WHEREAS, extending the statute of limitations for filing administrative charges with the City 15 does not affect the statute of limitations for filing independent private civil actions under 16 City, State, or Federal laws or filing administrative charges at other bodies at the state or 17 federal level, though it might affect the order in which a person filing an administrative 18 charge does so;¹ NOW, THEREFORE,

19 BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY OF SEATTLE AS FOLLOWS:

¹ For example, with the current 180-day statute of limitation to file an administrative charge under Seattle Municipal Code Chapter 14.04, a race or sex discrimination filing would be dual filed with the EEOC within its 300-day statute of limitation. With an administrative charge statute of limitations longer than 300 days, the EEOC claim must be filed first for dual filing to result, and if a person only files an administrative charge with the City after 300 days, that person will lose the ability to gain relief through the EEOC, including the ability to file a lawsuit under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.
