Background: Keisha earned a Bachelor of Arts in Communication and Sociology from Western Washington University and a Master of Arts in Student Development Administration from Seattle University. She served on the College Success Foundation (CSF) Board of Directors from 2014-2016. In September 2016, Keisha was selected as Education Chair for the Leadership Team of the Women of Seattle University Alumni Chapter and as a member of the Young Professionals Board for Treehouse for Kids, a non-profit organization that supports youth in foster care. Keisha currently works for Microsoft as Digital Communities Manager with the One Commercial Partner organization which is part of the Worldwide Commercial Business organization. In this role, Keisha markets Microsoft's products and services to over 300,000 businesses (small, medium and enterprise) that build their businesses off Microsoft technology. Prior to her role at Microsoft, Keisha was the Assistant Director of the Consulting and Business Development Center at the University of Washington Foster School of Business for three years. In that role, Keisha managed programs and student-led consulting projects designed to engage, support, and grow small businesses across Washington State in the areas of management and leadership development, access to money, and expanding to new markets! Keisha's early career began with CSF where she worked for five and a half years as Program Associate for the College and Alumni Services Department and then at Seattle University for two years as Coordinator of Off-Campus Student Life in the Division of Student Development. Much of Keisha's professional career has involved working with underrepresented students in the college to career pipeline.
