The Washington State Constitution prohibits gifts of public funds. As a result, ARTS contracts with arts and cultural organizations to provide funding for construction or renovation in exchange for public benefits to city residents. ARTS has defined public benefits in the context of arts and culture as “events/presentations, rehearsals/previews, planning/research, meetings/consultations, workshops, scholarships, educational/interpretive programs, archives or discounted/free use of facilities/equipment targeting a broad segment of the city.” As such, this green sheet would impose the following budget proviso:

"None of the money appropriated in the 2019 budget for the Office of Arts and Culture's Cultural Facilities BSL may be spent for the Town Hall project until authorized by future ordinance. Council anticipates that such authority will not be granted until the Executive provides Council with negotiated contracts detailing the public benefits that will be delivered by each partner agency in exchange for the City funding."
