

Amendment 2 to Protections Against Injury (CB 119554)

Sponsor: CM Mosqueda and CM González

Maximum Floor Space

On page 1 of version D3, at line 19, amend the following Section as shown below:

14.27.020 Definitions

For the purposes of this Chapter 14.27:

“Large hotel” means a hotel or motel, as defined in Section 23.84A.024, containing 100 or more guest rooms or suites of rooms suitable for providing lodging to members of the public for a fee, regardless of how many of those rooms or suites are occupied or in commercial use at a given time;

“Maximum floor space” means ~~5,000~~ 4,500 square feet of guest room floor space;

"Normal hourly rate of pay" means the hourly rate that the employee would have earned during that shift, not including overtime pay;

Renumber sections and correct any internal references accordingly.

Effect: This amendment would change the definition of maximum floor space from 5,000 square feet to 4,500 square feet.
