3. Equitable Development Initiative. ~~Nine-Ten~~ percent of the proceeds may be used to support the Equitable Development Initiative (EDI). Funding may be used to support community-initiated equitable development projects that advance economic mobility and opportunity, prevent residential, commercial, and cultural displacement, build on local cultural assets, promote transportation mobility and connectivity, develop healthy and safe neighborhoods, and enable equitable access to all neighborhoods. Funds would be appropriated to the Office of Planning and Community Development and allocated through the EDI's existing established funding process for awarding EDI grants. This funding may be used to support both the non-housing and affordable housing components of EDI projects; this shall include funding to support community capacity development, real estate development, and other EDI grant categories. Investments in EDI projects that include an affordable housing component will be prioritized.

4. Economic revitalization. ~~Seventeen-Sixteen~~ percent of the proceeds may be used to support local businesses and tourism to spur the local economic recovery, and to provide economic stability for the city's workforce. Investments will prioritize programs and services that diversify the local economy and improve job quality, including investing in labor-management training programs and partnerships with organizations whose work focuses on innovative workforce strategies that support and create jobs with strong pay and benefits and provide workforce training. This will include:

<sup>3</sup> Due to data limitations, the estimate for the Jump Start Seattle tax authorized through the ordinance introduced as Council Bill 119810 does not include incremental revenue that may be generated from a portion of the rates on any businesses with payroll of $1 billion and above. This table illustrates the spending breakdown using the sponsor’s revenue goal that assumes those businesses with payroll of $1 billion and above will result in about $28 million of additional revenue annually in 2022.
