

CITY OF SEATTLE

RESOLUTION 31963

A RESOLUTION supporting The George Floyd Justice in Policing Act of 2020 (H.R. 7120).

WHEREAS, The City of Seattle has been working on reforms to its police department and policing practices, including its use of force policies, since the federal consent decree (a.k.a. Settlement Agreement) was instituted in 2012; and

WHEREAS, the consent decree was followed by several police reform and accountability policies and organizations including the Community Police Commission, the Office of Police Accountability, the Office of Inspector General, the 2017 police reform ordinance (Ordinance 125315), and the 2018 Sustainment Plan; and

WHEREAS, the police killing of George Floyd in Minneapolis following the long history of disproportionate police misconduct and violence against countless other Black, Indigenous, and people of color (BIPOC) in Seattle and throughout our nation and the subsequent community-led protests are causing several local governments to boldly address the histories of institutional racism within their law enforcement systems; and

WHEREAS, The City of Seattle and other cities have recognized that attempts to reform their police departments are insufficient by themselves to end disproportionately negative impacts on BIPOC communities; and

WHEREAS, The City of Seattle is in the process of re-examining its budget through an anti-racist lens to determine how to better allocate resources to reimagine public safety and achieve healthy communities; and

WHEREAS, after public officials reallocate substantial funding away from traditional policing to other City government departments or to effective community-based organizations, there

1 will still be a need to sustain and expand reforms of the remaining law enforcement 2 systems; and

3 WHEREAS, reforms needed across the nation include not only reforms implemented in Seattle,
4 such as the use of body cameras, but also reforms that require changes in federal law, 5 such as ending qualified immunity for police officers; and

6 WHEREAS, Congresswoman Karen Bass, Democrat of California, introduced H.R. 7120, 7 known as the George Floyd Justice in Policing Act of 2020, to institute a wide range of 8 police reforms and accountability measures to protect BIPOC communities no matter 9 where they reside; and

10 WHEREAS, the U.S. House of Representatives passed H.R. 7120 by a vote of 236 in favor and 11 181 against on June 25, 2020 with the Seattle's congressional delegation, Pramila Jayapal
12 and Adam Smith, voting in favor; NOW, THEREFORE,

13 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SEATTLE THAT:

14 Section 1. The City of Seattle urges immediate passage by the United States Senate of 15 H.R. 7120, known as the George Floyd Justice in Policing Act of 2020, which will increase 16 accountability across the nation for law enforcement misconduct, enhance transparency and data 17 collection, eliminate discriminatory policing practices, and facilitate federal enforcement of 18 constitutional violations (e.g., excessive use of force). Among other things, H.R. 7120 would 19 accomplish the following:

20 A. Limit qualified immunity as a defense to liability in a private civil action against a law 21 enforcement officer or state correctional officer;

22 B. Lower the federal prosecution standard for convicting a law enforcement officer for 23 misconduct from willful actions to reckless actions;

1 C. Authorize the Department of Justice to issue subpoenas in investigations of police 2 departments for a pattern or practice of discrimination;

3 D. Create a national registry—the National Police Misconduct Registry—to compile data 4 on complaints and records of police misconduct;

5 E. Establish a framework to prohibit racial profiling at the federal, state, and local levels; 6 and

7 F. Institute new requirements for law enforcement officers and agencies, including to 8 report data on use-of-force incidents.

1 Adopted by the City Council the 17th day of August, 2020,
2 and signed by me in open session in authentication of its adoption this 17th day of 3 August, 2020.
