PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Program and Community Outreach Manager - Goodwin Connections

August 2018 - Present, Seattle WA

- Manage day-to-day program operations; plan and administer program activities, including: two application periods, four renewal cycles, onboarding new participants into the program, orientation of current participants, and detailed document and file management for all program participants.
- Provide career, family, and parenting-related resources to participants while in the program and after graduation day.
- Promote the program to community organizations, schools, and child care/preschool facilities.
- Develop and maintain program reports to be used in grant applications and board reports regarding program success.
- Plan and implement all program-focused events (i.e. JOYful Gathering, Career Events, etc.).
- From a program perspective, support donor stewardship, and cultivation events (i.e. annual luncheon).
- Lead and work with the Program Committee to grow and improve the program and its offerings for student parents and their children.
- Support the organization by looking to forge deeper connections between alumni and Goodwin Connections.

Senior Manager, Nonprofit and Community Partnerships - Conquer Endurance Group

December 2013 to April 2018, Los Angeles, CA

- Directed and implemented all aspects of nonprofit partnerships, community outreach and entertainment programming across all events, including the 4th largest marathon in the nation, the Los Angeles Marathon.
- Successfully managed 75 - 90 non-profit partners annually, and provided programming and tools to help them raise over 4 million dollars each event cycle.
- Acted as a liaison with city officials, Chambers of Commerce, and key stakeholders in Los Angeles, Beverly Hills, Santa Monica and West Hollywood to foster positive community relationships.
- Oversaw program application processes, online registration and reporting, while implementing systems to provide a more seamless experience for partner nonprofits, and event participants.
- Plan and manage all administrative duties for all programs and 4 budgets annually, with less than a 3% variance. Demonstrated ability to reduce costs and increase programming.

Marketing and Events Director - Project Access

May 2011 - September 2013, Newport Beach, CA

- Responsible for creating and carrying out a focused marketing plan that included events, promotional activities and digital efforts that promoted the mission and vision of Project Access.
- Directed all public relations efforts and campaigns through resident testimonials, annual reports, and donor relations communication.
- Increased brand awareness and community relations through partnership building, presentations, and panel speaking opportunities at industry events.
- Lead all aspects of organizational fundraising events.
