This green sheet recommends passage of Council Bill 118559, declaring the former Ambaum, Andover, Delridge, Fauntleroy, Glendale, and White Center Substation properties in West Seattle surplus to the City’s needs upon the effective date of the ordinance and authorizing City Light to sell them, and declaring the former Dakota and Dumar Substations to be surplus to the City’s needs two years after the effective date of the ordinance and authorizing City Light to sell them.

The ordinance provides for City Light first offering the Delridge and Fauntleroy properties to community non-profit groups for open space.
