Residential Neighborhood: South Park	Zip Code: 98108	Contact Phone No.: [REDACTED]
Background: Haley Freedlund (she/they) is a trombonist, project producer, and photographer based in Seattle, WA. As an improvising musician with a knack for theater production, arts administration, and creative problem solving, Haley is frequently sought after to collaborate on exciting and multifaceted works for the stage and beyond its confines. Haley moved to Seattle in 2011 from Beaverton, OR to continue studies in music at Cornish College of the Arts (MU 2014). Since graduating, she has found work and partnership with venues, non-profits, festival presenters, musicians, comedians, and within the Seattle's queer and Jewish communities. In the last 10 years, Haley has rented two apartments on Capitol Hill, one duplex in Eastlake, and another now in South Park. Each time she has moved she has found it more challenging to find a new home. Haley says that "A landlord who will bet on a freelancer, a unit that won't rise in cost or go up for development, a neighborhood that feels like a neighborhood - these are all things that have been hard to come by not just for me, but for nearly every artist across any medium I know in the city."

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Program and Community Outreach Manager - Goodwin Connections

August 2018 - Present, Seattle WA

- Manage day-to-day program operations; plan and administer program activities, including: two application periods, four renewal cycles, onboarding new participants into the program, orientation of current participants, and detailed document and file management for all program participants.
- Provide career, family, and parenting-related resources to participants while in the program and after graduation day.
- Promote the program to community organizations, schools, and child care/preschool facilities.
- Develop and maintain program reports to be used in grant applications and board reports regarding program success.
- Plan and implement all program-focused events (i.e. JOYful Gathering, Career Events, etc.).
- From a program perspective, support donor stewardship, and cultivation events (i.e. annual luncheon).
- Lead and work with the Program Committee to grow and improve the program and its offerings for student parents and their children.
- Support the organization by looking to forge deeper connections between alumni and Goodwin Connections.

Senior Manager, Nonprofit and Community Partnerships - Conquer Endurance Group

December 2013 to April 2018, Los Angeles, CA

- Directed and implemented all aspects of nonprofit partnerships, community outreach and entertainment programming across all events, including the 4th largest marathon in the nation, the Los Angeles Marathon.
- Successfully managed 75 - 90 non-profit partners annually, and provided programming and tools to help them raise over 4 million dollars each event cycle.
- Acted as a liaison with city officials, Chambers of Commerce, and key stakeholders in Los Angeles, Beverly Hills, Santa Monica and West Hollywood to foster positive community relationships.
- Oversaw program application processes, online registration and reporting, while implementing systems to provide a more seamless experience for partner nonprofits, and event participants.
- Plan and manage all administrative duties for all programs and 4 budgets annually, with less than a 3% variance. Demonstrated ability to reduce costs and increase programming.

Marketing and Events Director - Project Access

May 2011 - September 2013, Newport Beach, CA

- Responsible for creating and carrying out a focused marketing plan that included events, promotional activities and digital efforts that promoted the mission and vision of Project Access.
- Directed all public relations efforts and campaigns through resident testimonials, annual reports, and donor relations communication.
- Increased brand awareness and community relations through partnership building, presentations, and panel speaking opportunities at industry events.
- Lead all aspects of organizational fundraising events.
