WHEREAS, as the economy emerges from the worst of the COVID-19 recession, Seattle construction is booming again, and Dodge Data and Analytics reported that Seattle was the eighth top metropolitan area in the US for commercial and apartment building construction starts in the first half of 2021; and

WHEREAS, in June 2021, the Puget Sound Business Journal reported that the top construction projects in Seattle included the Light Rail expansion mega-project, the $1.8 billion Washington State Convention Center Expansion, the $1.15 billion Climate Pledge Arena, along with the $900 million Expedia headquarters project, the $570 million high-rise luxury commercial and residential Rainier Square downtown project, the $455 million Colman Dock rebuild, the $381 million high-rise luxury tower project at 1200 Stewart, the $370 million luxury Ovation Towers on First Hill, the $317 million Martin Selig Real Estate project at Third and Lenora downtown, and the $187 million luxury condominium Spire highrise in downtown Seattle; and

WHEREAS, Seattle's construction surge is only powered by the skill and experience of thousands of construction workers, most of whom are proud members of building trades unions; and

WHEREAS, notwithstanding their quality labor and good pay that they have secured in union contracts, construction workers increasingly cannot afford to live in the city they build, as average home prices in Seattle in September 2021 were $875,000, an increase of 9.5 percent over just the last year, and have more than doubled in the last decade; and

WHEREAS, most of the major housing projects under construction are priced out of reach of the vast majority of working people, including the construction workers who are building these projects, as for example condominiums at The Spire are priced from $485,000 from the smallest studio unit to $1.44 million for a family-sized unit, and two-bedroom apartments at Rainier Square are listed at between $6,200/month and $16,000/month; and

WHEREAS, construction workers increasingly report that because of soaring housing costs they have to live further away from the area and are subjected to longer daily commutes of two hours or more each way; and

WHEREAS, in September 2021, Jacobin Magazine reported one carpenter stating, “most carpenters do not live in Seattle anymore. We’ve been priced out of the city. They have to commute from farther and farther away, and many of them can no longer afford to buy houses anymore at all;” and

WHEREAS, the stress of long commutes and pay that has not kept up with the rising cost of living are cited by carpenters as the reason for the September to October 2021 strike involving 2,000 members of Northwest Carpenters Union, affecting job sites throughout the region; and

WHEREAS, the Engineering News-Record, industry media, noted a statement by Northwest Carpenters Union Executive Secretary Treasurer Evelyn Shapiro that the strike started because “many union members wanted more compensation for working in areas including Seattle and Bellevue, where they face higher parking costs and must spend more on gas because rising housing costs have forced many to have to live two or three hours away;” and

WHEREAS, many carpenters and the Northwest Carpenters Union leadership have cited paid parking as an important issue related to the insufficiency of worker pay; and

WHEREAS, the carpenters’ strike which ended in October 2021 is not unique, as area crane operators, truck drivers, and glaziers went on strike between 2016 and 2018, over similar compensation issues; and

WHEREAS, construction workers have high commuter costs because they are traveling long distances to get to job sites; and

WHEREAS, most construction workers cannot use public transportation in the same way as other workers because they must travel long distances and report to job sites very early in the morning, before regular bus and train service has started; and

WHEREAS, most construction workers also cannot use public transportation because they must drive their personal vehicles to bring their tools, hardhats, safety harnesses, and other equipment to job sites to perform their work; and

WHEREAS, construction workers carrying equipment must pay for parking near their job site and this proximity makes parking more expensive for them than for workers in other industries who can work remotely, seek free or less expensive parking farther away from their job site, or use public transportation; and

WHEREAS, construction workers must also pay for parking that lasts for the duration of their workday because they are less able to move their vehicles every few hours and this type of parking is more expensive for them than for workers in other industries who can seek shorter-term parking or use public transportation; and

WHEREAS, while contractors at some job sites, including Climate Pledge Arena, provide free parking to construction workers, and some construction trades unions like Ironworkers, Sheetmetal workers, and Plumbers and Pipefitters have negotiated paid parking in their union contracts, many contractors do not provide free parking or full reimbursement for parking expenses for their workers, requiring workers to pay $20 to $30 per day or more for parking, according to workers; and

WHEREAS, unavoidable parking expenses can cost construction workers $6,000 per worker or more over the course of a year, severely impacting their net income, overall quality of life, and ability to afford housing in the Seattle market; and

WHEREAS, currently, many construction employers do not provide any paid parking, or sufficient paid parking, for their workers, even though they could elect to do so; and

WHEREAS, the City Council (Council) has passed 17 labor standards that protect and empower workers in Seattle; and

WHEREAS, Seattle's labor standards address pay, benefits, and equity issues, including the Minimum Wage Ordinance, Wage Theft Ordinance, Secure Scheduling Ordinance, Paid Sick and Safe Time Ordinance, Domestic Workers Ordinance, Hotel Employee Protections Ordinances, COVID-19 Gig Worker

Protections Ordinances, Transportation Network Company Driver Ordinances, and Independent Contractor Protections Ordinance, among others; and

WHEREAS, many of these ordinances cover specific subsections of the Seattle workforce, as the Council recognized that different workers are affected in different ways by work requirements and conditions, necessitating ordinances that address problems in specific industries; and

WHEREAS, the Council intends to address the problem of parking costs for construction workers who must drive their personal vehicles to Seattle job sites; and

WHEREAS, requiring all general and subcontractors to provide parking or to reimburse construction workers for parking costs they incur to perform work in Seattle furthers the public interest by creating a level playing field for all construction employers doing business in Seattle; and

WHEREAS, The City of Seattle is a leader on wage, labor, and workforce practices that improve workers' lives, support economic security, and contribute to a fair, healthy, and vibrant economy; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY OF SEATTLE AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. The City Council (Council) finds and declares that:

A. In the exercise of The City of Seattle's police powers, the City is granted authority to pass regulations designed to protect and promote public health, safety, and welfare.

B. This ordinance protects and promotes public health, safety, and welfare by requiring construction employers to provide parking for construction employees or to reimburse construction employees for parking costs they incur as a regular expense of performing work in Seattle, thereby considerably increasing the net income of these workers and improving their overall quality of life and ability to support themselves and their families.

C. Construction is a vital source of work and income for tens of thousands of workers in Seattle and many of these workers spend a disproportionate share of their income to reach their job sites.

D. Unlike workers in many other industries, construction workers must drive to work to meet the specific needs of their jobs, such as bringing heavy tools and other equipment to perform their work or arriving early in the morning before the start of public transportation services. Construction workers must also park near their jobs to limit the distance that they carry equipment to the job site and must find parking for the duration of the workday to avoid moving their vehicles every few hours.

E. It can be exceptionally expensive for construction workers to park near their job sites in Seattle, and this expense is particularly damaging for workers who are facing inequities in pay and other aspects of work.

F. Requiring construction employers to pay for the parking costs of construction workers will meaningfully improve the financial resources of workers who bear significant expense to perform work that supports their economic livelihood and contributes to a thriving construction industry in Seattle.

Section 2. A new Chapter 14.35 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows:

CHAPTER 14.35 CONSTRUCTION EMPLOYEE PARKING REIMBURSEMENTS

14.35.010 Short title

14.35.030 Employee coverage

For the purposes of this Chapter 14.35, covered employees are limited to construction employees who perform work for a covered employer in whole or part in Seattle.

14.35.030 Employer coverage

A. For the purposes of this Chapter 14.35, covered employers are limited to construction employers operating in whole or part in Seattle.

B. Separate entities that form an integrated enterprise shall be considered a single employer under this ordinance. Separate entities will be considered an integrated enterprise and a single employer under this ordinance where a separate entity controls the operation of another entity. The factors to consider in making this assessment may include, but are not limited to:

1. Degree of interrelation between the operations of multiple entities;
2. Degree to which the entities share common management;
3. Centralized control of labor relations;
4. Degree of common ownership or financial control over the entities; and
5. Use of a common brand, trade, business, or operating name.

C. The Agency is authorized to make a reasonable inference as to whether an employer meets the definition of “construction employer” under Section 14.35.020, and an alleged employer bears the burden of proof to show that the employer is not a “construction employer” as defined in Section 14.35.020.

14.35.040 Parking reimbursements

A. Employers shall provide each employee with full reimbursement for parking expenses for construction work in Seattle.

1. Employers providing additional compensation for parking expenses, such as hourly parking benefits, may use such compensation to offset the amount due for reimbursement of parking expenses under this subsection 14.35.040.A. Employers bear the burden of proof to show that the additional compensation is for the purposes of providing reimbursement for parking expenses.

2. Employers providing parking, at no cost to the employee, at or near a construction site are not required to provide reimbursement for parking expenses under Section 14.35.040. If the employer-provided parking is more than three blocks from the construction site, the employer shall provide transportation, at no cost to the employee, to and from the employer-provided parking site and the construction site; the employer also shall compensate the employee for the time spent travelling between the employer-provided parking site and the construction site as hours worked at the employee's regular rate of pay, subject to overtime requirements.

B. Reimbursement for parking expenses and pay for travel time from employer-provided parking under subsection 14.35.040.A is compensation under Chapter 14.20. Employers providing reimbursement for parking expenses or pay for travel time from employer-provided parking shall comply with all compensation requirements under Chapter 14.20, including but not limited to the following:

1. Employers shall provide compensation on an established regular pay day at no longer than monthly payment intervals under Section 14.20.020.

2. Employers shall provide revised written notice of employment information that includes notice of reimbursement for parking expenses or pay for travel time from employer-provided parking under subsection 14.20.025.D, provided that such notice is due by 30 days after the effective date of this Chapter 14.35.

3. Employers shall provide reimbursement for parking expenses or pay for travel time from employer-provided parking on an established regular pay day at no longer than monthly payment intervals under Section 14.20.020.

4. Employers shall provide written itemization of reimbursements for parking expenses or pay for travel time from employer-provided parking to distinguish between payment for work performed and payment for reimbursement of parking expenses or pay for travel time from employer-provided parking under subsection 14.20.025.E.

14.35.100 Notice of rights

A. Within 30 days of the effective date of this Chapter 14.35, employers shall display a written notice of rights established by this Chapter 14.35 in a conspicuous and accessible place at any workplace or job site where any of their employees' work. Employers shall display the notice of rights in English and in the primary language(s) of the employee(s) at the workplace or job site. Employers shall make a good faith effort to determine the primary languages of the employees at the workplace or job site. If display of the notice of rights is not feasible, including situations when the employee works remotely or does not have a regular workplace or job site, employers may solely provide the notice of rights on an individual basis in the employee's primary language in a physical or electronic format that is reasonably conspicuous and accessible. The Director may issue rules governing the form and content of the notice of rights, the manner of its distribution, and required languages for its translation.

B. The notice of rights shall provide information on:

1. The right to reimbursement for parking expenses and pay for travel time from employer-provided parking guaranteed by this Chapter 14.35;
2. The right to be protected from retaliation for exercising in good faith the rights protected by this Chapter 14.35;
3. The right to file a complaint with the Agency or bring a civil action for violation of the requirements of this Chapter 14.35, including but not limited to an employer or any person's failure to provide reimbursement for parking expenses as required by this Chapter 14.35, and an employer or other person's retaliation against an employee or other person for asserting the right to reimbursement for parking expenses or otherwise engaging in an activity protected by this Chapter 14.35; and
4. Pursuant to rules that the Director may issue, other information that is material and necessary to effectuate the terms of this Chapter 14.35.

C. The Agency may create and distribute a model notice of rights in English and other languages. However, employers are responsible for providing employees with the notice of rights required by subsection 14.35.100.B in a form and manner sufficient to inform employees of their rights under this Chapter 14.35, regardless of whether the Agency has created and distributed a model notice of rights.

14.35.110 Employer records

- A. Employers shall retain records that document compliance with this Chapter 14.35 for each employee.
- B. Employers shall retain the records required by subsection 14.35.110.A for a period of three years.
- C. If an employer fails to retain adequate records required under subsection 14.35.110.A, there shall be a presumption, rebuttable by clear and convincing evidence, that the employer violated this Chapter 14.35 for the periods and for each employee for whom records were not retained.

14.35.120 Retaliation prohibited

A. No employer or any other person shall interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of, or the attempt to exercise, any right protected under this Chapter 14.35.

B. No employer or any other person shall take any adverse action against any person because the person has exercised in good faith the rights protected under this Chapter 14.35. Such rights include, but are not limited to, the right to make inquiries about the rights protected under this Chapter 14.35; the right to inform others about their rights under this Chapter 14.35; the right to inform the person's employer, the person's legal counsel, a union or similar organization, or any other person about an alleged violation of this Chapter 14.35; the right to file an oral or written complaint with the Agency or bring a civil action for an alleged violation of this Chapter 14.35; the right to cooperate with the Agency in its investigations of this Chapter 14.35; the right to testify in a proceeding under or related to this Chapter 14.35; the right to refuse to participate in an activity that would result in a violation of city, state or federal law; and the right to oppose any policy, practice, or act that is unlawful under this Chapter 14.35.

C. No employer or any other person shall communicate to a person exercising rights protected in this Section 14.35.120, directly or indirectly, the willingness to inform a government worker that the person is not lawfully in the United States, or to report, or to make an implied or express assertion of a willingness to report, suspected citizenship or immigration status of an employee or family member of an employee to a federal, state, or local agency because the employee has exercised a right under this Chapter 14.35.

D. It shall be a rebuttable presumption of retaliation if an employer or any other person takes an adverse action against a person within 90 days of the person's exercise of rights protected in this Section 14.35.120. The employer may rebut the presumption with clear and convincing evidence that the adverse action was taken for a permissible purpose.

E. Proof of retaliation under this Section 14.35.120 shall be sufficient upon a showing that an employer or any other person has taken an adverse action against a person and the person's exercise of rights protected in this Section 14.35.120 was a motivating factor in the adverse action, unless the employer can prove that the action would have been taken in the absence of such protected activity.

F. The protections afforded under this Section 14.35.120 shall apply to any person who mistakenly but in good faith alleges violations of this Chapter 14.35.

G. A complaint or other communication by any person triggers the protections of this Section 14.35.120 regardless of whether the complaint or communication is in writing or makes explicit reference to this Chapter 14.35.

14.35.125 Rulemaking authority

The Director is authorized to administer and enforce this Chapter 14.35. The Director is authorized to promulgate, revise, or rescind rules and regulations deemed necessary, appropriate, or convenient to administer, evaluate and enforce the provisions of this Chapter 14.35 pursuant to Chapter 3.02, providing affected entities with due process of law and in conformity with the intent and purpose of this Chapter 14.35. Any rules promulgated by the Director shall have the force and effect of law and may be relied on by employers, employees, and other parties to determine their rights and responsibilities under this Chapter 14.35.

14.35.130 Enforcement power and duties

The Agency shall have the power to administer and enforce this Chapter 14.35 and shall have such powers and duties in the performance of these functions as are defined in this Chapter 14.35 and otherwise necessary and proper in the performance of the same and provided for by law.

14.35.140 Violation

The failure of any respondent to comply with any requirement imposed on the respondent under this Chapter 14.35 is a violation.

14.35.150 Investigation

A. The Agency shall have the power to investigate any violations of this Chapter 14.35 by any respondent. The Agency may prioritize investigations of workforces that are vulnerable to violations of this Chapter 14.35. The Agency may initiate an investigation pursuant to Director rules, including but not limited to situations when the Director has reason to believe that a violation has occurred or will occur, or when circumstances show that violations are likely to occur within a class of employers or businesses because the workforce contains significant numbers of employees who are vulnerable to violations of this Chapter 14.35 or the workforce is unlikely to volunteer information regarding such violations. An investigation may also be initiated through the receipt by the Agency of a report or complaint filed by an employee or other person.

B. An employee or other person may report to the Agency any suspected violation of this Chapter 14.35. The Agency shall encourage reporting pursuant to this Section 14.35.150 by taking the following measures:

1. The Agency shall keep confidential, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable laws, the name and other identifying information of the employee or person reporting the violation. However, with the authorization of such person, the Agency may disclose the employee's or person's name and identifying information as necessary to enforce this Chapter 14.35 or for other appropriate purposes.

2. The Agency may require the employer to post or otherwise notify other employees working for the employer that the Agency is conducting an investigation. The employer shall provide the notice of investigation in a form, place, and manner designated by the Agency. The Agency shall create the notice of investigation in English and other languages.

3. The Agency may certify the eligibility of eligible persons for “U” Visas under the provisions of 8 U.S.C. § 1184.p and 8 U.S.C. § 1101.a.15.U. This certification is subject to applicable federal law and regulations, and Director rules.

C. The Agency's investigation shall commence within three years of the alleged violation. To the extent permitted by law, the applicable statute of limitations for civil actions is tolled during any investigation under this Chapter 14.35 and any administrative enforcement proceeding under this Chapter 14.35 based upon the same facts. For purposes of this Chapter 14.35:

1. The Agency's investigation begins on the earlier date of when the Agency receives a complaint from a person under this Chapter 14.35, or when the Agency provides notice to the respondent that an investigation has commenced under this Chapter 14.35.

2. The Agency's investigation ends when the Agency issues a final order concluding the matter and any appeals have been exhausted; the time to file any appeal has expired; or the Agency notifies the respondent in writing that the investigation has been otherwise resolved.

D. The Agency's investigation shall be conducted in an objective and impartial manner.

E. The Director may apply by affidavit or declaration in the form allowed under RCW 9A.72.085 to the Hearing Examiner for the issuance of subpoenas requiring an employer to produce the records required by Section 14.35.110, or for the attendance and testimony of witnesses, or for the production of documents required to be retained under Section 14.35.110, or any other document relevant to the issue of whether any employee or group of employees received the information or other benefits required by this Chapter 14.35, and/or to whether an employer has violated any provision of this Chapter 14.35. The Hearing Examiner shall conduct the review without hearing as soon as practicable and shall issue subpoenas upon a showing that there is reason to believe that: a violation has occurred, a complaint has been filed with the Agency, that circumstances show that violations are likely to occur within a class of businesses because the workforce contains significant numbers of employees who are vulnerable to violations of this Chapter 14.35, the workforce is unlikely to volunteer information regarding such violations, or the Agency has gathered preliminary information indicating that a violation may have occurred.

F. An employer that fails to comply with the terms of any subpoena issued under subsection 14.35.150.E in an investigation by the Agency under this Chapter 14.35 before the issuance of a Director's Order issued pursuant to subsection 14.35.160.C may not use such records in any appeal to challenge the correctness of any determination by the Agency of liability, damages owed, or penalties assessed.

G. In addition to other remedies, the Director may refer any subpoena issued under subsection 14.35.150.E to the City Attorney to seek a court order to enforce any subpoena.

H. Where the Director has reason to believe that a violation has occurred, the Director may order any appropriate temporary or interim relief to mitigate the violation or maintain the status quo pending completion of a full investigation or hearing, including but not limited to a deposit of funds or bond sufficient to satisfy a good-faith estimate of compensation, interest, damages, and penalties due. A respondent may appeal any such order in accordance with Section 14.35.180.

14.35.160 Findings of fact and determination

A. Except when there is an agreed upon settlement, the Director shall issue a written determination with findings of fact resulting from the investigation and statement of whether a violation of this Chapter 14.35 has or has not occurred based on a preponderance of the evidence before the Director.

B. If the Director determines that there is no violation of this Chapter 14.35, the Director shall issue a "Determination of No Violation" with notice of an employee's or other person's right to appeal the decision, pursuant to Director rules.

C. If the Director determines that a violation of this Chapter 14.35 has occurred, the Director shall issue a "Director's Order" that shall include a notice of violation identifying the violation or violations.

1. The Director's Order shall state with specificity the amounts due under this Chapter 14.35 for each violation, including payment of unpaid compensation, liquidated damages, civil penalties, penalties payable to aggrieved parties, fines, and interest pursuant to Section 14.35.170.

2. The Director's Order may specify that civil penalties and fines due to the Agency can be mitigated for respondent's timely payment of remedy due to an aggrieved party pursuant to subsection 14.35.170.A.4.

3. The Director's Order may specify that civil penalties and fines are due to the aggrieved party rather than due to the Agency.

4. The Director's Order may direct the respondent to take such corrective action as is necessary to comply with the requirements of this Chapter 14.35, including but not limited to monitored compliance for a reasonable time period.

5. The Director's Order shall include notice of the respondent's right to appeal the decision pursuant to Section 14.35.180.

14.35.165 Complaint procedure

A. The Agency shall have the power to respond to any violations of this Chapter 14.35 with a complaint procedure.

B. The Agency may initiate a complaint procedure as an alternative enforcement method to an investigation for responding to a report or complaint by any person of a violation of this Chapter 14.35. The Director may issue rules for the complaint procedure, including but not limited to rules to establish the timeline for sending the information required by subsection 14.35.165.D, determine the nature and content of information requested from the complainant and employer, and indicate when the Agency may prioritize use of a complaint procedure prior to an investigation or in lieu of an investigation. The Director may also establish other enforcement methods to efficiently resolve violations of this Chapter 14.35.

C. The Agency may request the complainant to provide information pursuant to the complaint procedure, including but not limited to:

1. Contact information for the employee and employer; and
2. A statement describing the alleged violations of this Chapter 14.35.

D. The Agency may send notices to the employer and complainant, including but not limited to:

1. Notice of the alleged violation(s). The Agency may send notice to the employer of the alleged violation(s) of this Chapter 14.35. The Agency shall bear any cost of sending such notice by certified mail or by other means incurring a cost to the Agency. This notice may include but not be limited to:

- a. Statement of the alleged violation(s) of this Chapter 14.35; and
- b. Description of the remedies available to an employee for violation(s) of this Chapter

14.35;

2. Response from the employer. The Agency may request the employer to send the Agency relevant information to respond to the alleged violation(s) within a specified timeframe.

3. Notice to the complainant of the response from the employer. The Agency may send a notice to the complainant of the response from the employer. This notice to the complainant may include but not be limited to:

- a. The response from employer, including any enclosures;
- b. Information on the right to bring a civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction;
- c. Any other information about the status of the complaint; and
- d. Information about the navigation program pursuant to Section 14.35.167.

4. Notice of no response. If the Agency receives no response from the employer within the specified timeframe, the Agency may send a notice of no response to the complainant and the employer and may include proof that the Agency previously sent notice of the alleged violation(s) to the employer.

5. Notice of closure. The Agency may send the complainant and employer notice of the Agency's completion of the complaint procedure and/or closure of the case.

E. Upon satisfying the requirements of subsections 14.35.165.C and 14.35.165.D, the Agency may close the case.

14.35.167 Navigation program

The Agency may establish a navigation program that provides intake and information relating to the provisions of this Chapter 14.35.

A. The navigation program may provide a range of information, including but not limited to:

1. Information on the provisions and procedures of this Chapter 14.35;

2. General court information, including but not limited to:

a. Information on court procedures for filing civil actions in a court of competent jurisdiction; and

b. Information on obtaining translation and interpretation services, and other courtroom services;

3. A list of organizations that can be used to identify attorneys;

4. Organizations providing outreach and education, and/or legal assistance to employees;

5. Information about classifying workers as employees or independent contractors; and

6. As determined by the Director, additional information related to the provisions of this Chapter 14.35, other workplace protections for independent contractors, or other resources for resolving workplace issues.

B. The navigation program may include outreach and education to the public on the provisions and procedures of this Chapter 14.35.

C. The navigation program shall not include legal advice from the Agency. However, if the Agency provides information to an employee about a community organization through the navigation program, the community organization is not precluded from providing legal advice.

14.35.170 Remedies

A. The payment of unpaid compensation, liquidated damages of up to twice the amount of unpaid compensation, civil penalties, penalties payable to aggrieved parties, fines, and interest provided under this Chapter 14.35 is cumulative and is not intended to be exclusive of any other available remedies, penalties, fines, and procedures.

1. The amounts of all civil penalties, penalties payable to aggrieved parties, and fines contained in this Section 14.35.170 shall be increased annually to reflect the rate of inflation and calculated to the nearest cent on January 1 of each year thereafter. The Agency shall determine the amounts and file a schedule of such amounts with the City Clerk.

2. If a violation is ongoing when the Agency receives a complaint or opens an investigation, the Director may order payment of unpaid compensation plus interest that accrues after receipt of the complaint or after the investigation opens and before the date of the Director's Order.

3. Interest shall accrue from the date the unpaid compensation was first due at 12 percent annum, or the maximum rate permitted under RCW 19.52.020.

4. If there is a remedy due to an aggrieved party, the Director may waive part or all civil penalties and fines due to the Agency based on timely payment of the full remedy due to the aggrieved party.

a. The Director may waive the total amount of civil penalties and fines due to the Agency if the Director determines that the respondent paid the full remedy due to the aggrieved party within ten days of service of the Director's Order.

b. The Director may waive half the amount of civil penalties and fines due to the Agency if the Director determines that the respondent paid the full remedy due to the aggrieved party within 15 days of service of the Director's Order.

c. The Director shall not waive any amount of civil penalties and fines due to the Agency if the Director determines that the respondent has not paid the full remedy due to the aggrieved party after 15 days of service of the Director's Order.

5. When determining the amount of liquidated damages, civil penalties, penalties payable to aggrieved parties, and fines due under this Section 14.35.170 for a settlement agreement or Director's Order, including but not limited to the mitigation of civil penalties and fines due to the Agency for timely payment of remedy due to an aggrieved party under subsection 14.35.170.A.4, the Director may consider:

- a. The total amount of unpaid compensation, liquidated damages, penalties, fines, and interest due;
- b. The nature and persistence of the violations;
- c. The extent of the respondent's culpability;
- d. The substantive or technical nature of the violations;
- e. The size, revenue, and human resources capacity of the respondent;
- f. The circumstances of each situation;
- g. The amount of penalties in similar situations; and
- h. Pursuant to rules that the Director may issue, other factors that are material and necessary to effectuate the terms of this Chapter 14.35.

B. A respondent found to be in violation of this Chapter 14.35 shall be liable for full payment of unpaid compensation due plus interest in favor of the aggrieved party under the terms of this Chapter 14.35, and other equitable relief. If the precise amount of unpaid compensation cannot be determined due to a respondent's failure to produce records or if a respondent produces records in a manner or form which makes timely determination of the amount of unpaid compensation impracticable, the Director may designate a daily amount for unpaid compensation due to aggrieved party. For any violation of this Chapter 14.35, the Director may assess liquidated damages in an additional amount of up to twice the unpaid compensation.

C. A respondent found to be in violation of this Chapter 14.35 for retaliation under Section 14.35.120 shall be subject to any appropriate relief at law or equity including, but not limited to reinstatement of the aggrieved party, front pay in lieu of reinstatement with full payment of unpaid compensation plus interest in favor of the aggrieved party under the terms of this Chapter 14.35, and liquidated damages in an additional amount of up to twice the unpaid compensation. The Director also shall order the imposition of a penalty payable to the aggrieved party of up to $5,565.10.

D. The Director is authorized to assess civil penalties for a violation of this Chapter 14.35 and may specify that civil penalties are due to the aggrieved party rather than due to the Agency.

1. For a first violation of this Chapter 14.35, the Director may assess a civil penalty of up to $556.30 per aggrieved party.

2. For a second violation of this Chapter 14.35, the Director shall assess a civil penalty of up to $1,112.60 per aggrieved party, or an amount equal to ten percent of the total amount of unpaid compensation, whichever is greater.

3. For a third or any subsequent violation of this 14.35, the Director shall assess a civil penalty of up to $5,565.10 per aggrieved party, or an amount equal to ten percent of the total amount of unpaid compensation, whichever is greater.

4. For purposes of this subsection 14.35.170.D, a violation is a second, third, or subsequent violation if the respondent has been a party to one, two, or more than two settlement agreements, respectively, stipulating that a violation has occurred; and/or one, two, or more than two Director's Orders, respectively, have issued against the respondent in the ten years preceding the date of the violation; otherwise, it is a first violation.

E. The Director is authorized to assess fines for a violation of this Chapter 14.35 and may specify that fines are due to the aggrieved party rather than due to the Agency. The Director is authorized to assess fines as follows:

Violation	Fine
Failure to provide written notice of rights under Section 14.35.100	$556.30 per aggrieved party
Failure to retain employer records for three years under subsections 14.35.110.A and 14.35.110.B	$556.30 per missing record

Failure to comply with prohibitions against retaliation for exercising rights protected under Section 14.35.120	$1,112.60 per aggrieved party
Failure to provide notice of investigation to employees under subsection 14.35.150.B.2	$556.30 per aggrieved party
Failure to post or distribute public notice of failure to comply with final order under subsection 14.35.210.A.1	$556.30

For each employee hired by the employer and each missing record, the maximum amount that may be imposed in fines in a one-year period for each type of violation listed above is $5,565.10. For each employee hired by the employer, if a fine for retaliation is issued, the maximum amount that may be imposed in a one-year period is $22,259.36.

F. A respondent that willfully hinders, prevents, impedes, or interferes with the Director or Hearing Examiner in the performance of their duties under this Chapter 14.35 shall be subject to a civil penalty of not less than $1,112.60 and not more than $5,565.10.

G. In addition to the unpaid compensation, penalties, fines, liquidated damages, and interest, the Agency may assess against the respondent in favor of the City the reasonable costs incurred in enforcing this Chapter 14.35, including but not limited to reasonable attorneys' fees.

H. A respondent that is the subject of a settlement agreement stipulating that a violation has occurred shall count for debarment, or a final order for which all appeal rights have been exhausted, shall not be permitted to bid, or have a bid considered, on any City contract until such amounts due under the final order have been paid in full to the Director. If the respondent is the subject of a final order two times or more within a five-year period, the employer shall not be allowed to bid on any City contract for two years. This subsection 14.35.170.H shall be construed to provide grounds for debarment separate from, and in addition to, those contained in Chapter 20.70 and shall not be governed by that chapter provided that nothing in this subsection 14.35.170.H shall be construed to limit the application of Chapter 20.70. The Director shall notify the Director of Finance and Administrative Services of all respondents subject to debarment under this subsection 14.35.170.H.

14.35.180 Appeal period and failure to respond

A. An employee or other person who claims an injury as a result of an alleged violation of this Chapter 14.35 may appeal the Determination of No Violation, pursuant to Director rules.

B. A respondent may appeal the Director's Order, including all remedies issued pursuant to Section 14.35.170, by requesting a contested hearing before the Hearing Examiner in writing within 15 days of service of the Director's Order. If a respondent fails to appeal the Director's Order within 15 days of service, the Director's Order shall be final. If the last day of the appeal period so computed is a Saturday, Sunday, or federal or City holiday, the appeal period shall run until 5 p.m. on the next business day.

14.35.190 Appeal procedure and failure to appear

A. Contested hearings shall be conducted pursuant to the procedures for hearing contested cases contained in Section 3.02.090 and the rules adopted by the Hearing Examiner for hearing contested cases. The hearing shall be conducted de novo and the Director shall have the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the violation or violations occurred. Upon establishing such proof, the remedies and penalties imposed by the Director shall be upheld unless it is shown that the Director abused discretion. Failure to appear for a contested hearing shall result in an order being entered finding that the respondent committed the violation stated in the Director's Order. For good cause shown and upon terms the Hearing Examiner deems just, the Hearing Examiner may set aside an order entered upon a failure to appear.

B. In all contested cases, the Hearing Examiner shall enter an order affirming, modifying, or reversing the Director's Order, consistent with Ordinance 126068.

14.35.200 Appeal from Hearing Examiner order

A. The respondent may obtain judicial review of the decision of the Hearing Examiner by applying for a Writ of Review in the King County Superior Court within 30 days from the date of the decision in accordance with the procedure set forth in chapter 7.16 RCW, other applicable law, and court rules.

B. The decision of the Hearing Examiner shall be final and conclusive unless review is sought in compliance with this Section 14.35.200.

14.35.210 Failure to comply with final order

A. If a respondent fails to comply within 30 days of service of any settlement agreement with the Agency, or with any final order issued by the Director or the Hearing Examiner for which all appeal rights have been exhausted, the Agency may pursue, but is not limited to, the following measures to secure compliance:

1. The Director may require the respondent to post or distribute public notice of the respondent's failure to comply in a form and manner determined by the Agency.
2. The Director may refer the matter to a collection agency. The cost to the City for the collection services will be assessed as costs, at the rate agreed to between the City and the collection agency, and added to the amounts due.
3. The Director may refer the matter to the City Attorney for the filing of a civil action in King County Superior Court, the Seattle Municipal Court, or any other court of competent jurisdiction to enforce such order or to collect amounts due. In the alternative, the Director may seek to enforce a Director's Order or a final order of the Hearing Examiner under Section 14.35.190.
4. The Director may request that the City's Department of Finance and Administrative Services deny, suspend, refuse to renew, or revoke any business license held or requested by the employer or person until such time as the employer complies with the remedy as defined in the settlement agreement or final order. The City's Department of Finance and Administrative Services shall have the authority to deny, refuse to renew, or revoke any business license in accordance with this subsection 14.35.210.A.4.

B. No respondent that is the subject of a final order issued under this Chapter 14.35 shall quit business, sell out, exchange, convey, or otherwise dispose of the respondent's business or stock of goods without first notifying the Agency and without first notifying the respondent's successor of the amounts owed under the final order at least three business days before such transaction. At the time the respondent quits business, or sells out, exchanges, or otherwise disposes of the respondent's business or stock of goods, the full amount of the remedy, as defined in a final order issued by the Director or the Hearing Examiner, shall become immediately due and payable. If the amount due under the final order is not paid by respondent within ten days from the date of such sale, exchange, conveyance, or disposal, the successor shall become liable for the payment of the amount due, provided that the successor has actual knowledge of the order and the amounts due or has prompt, reasonable, and effective means of accessing and verifying the fact and amount of the order and the amounts due. The successor shall withhold from the purchase price a sum sufficient to pay the amount of the full remedy. When the successor makes such payment, that payment shall be deemed a payment upon the purchase price in the amount paid, and if such payment is greater in amount than the purchase price the amount of the difference shall become a debt due such successor from the employer.

14.35.220 Debt owed The City of Seattle

A. All monetary amounts due under the Director's Order shall be a debt owed to the City and may be collected in the same manner as any other debt in like amount, which remedy shall be in addition to all other existing remedies, provided that amounts collected by the City for unpaid compensation, liquidated damages, penalties payable to aggrieved parties, or front pay shall be held in trust by the City for the aggrieved party and, once collected by the City, shall be paid by the City to the aggrieved party.

B. If a respondent fails to appeal a Director's Order to the Hearing Examiner within the time period set forth in subsection 14.35.180.B, the Director's Order shall be final, and the Director may petition the Seattle Municipal Court, or any court of competent jurisdiction, to enforce the Director's Order by entering judgment in favor of the City finding that the respondent has failed to exhaust its administrative remedies and that all amounts and relief contained in the order are due. The Director's Order shall constitute prima facie evidence that a violation occurred and shall be admissible without further evidentiary foundation. Any certifications or declarations authorized under RCW 9A.72.085 containing evidence that the respondent has failed to comply with the order or any parts thereof, and is therefore in default, or that the respondent has failed to appeal the Director's Order to the Hearing Examiner within the time period set forth in subsection 14.35.180.B, and therefore has failed to exhaust the respondent's administrative remedies, shall also be admissible without further evidentiary foundation.

C. If a respondent fails to obtain judicial review of an order of the Hearing Examiner within the time period set forth in subsection 14.35.200.A, the order of the Hearing Examiner shall be final, and the Director may petition the Seattle Municipal Court to enforce the Director's Order by entering judgment in favor of the City for all amounts and relief due under the order of the Hearing Examiner. The order of the Hearing Examiner shall constitute conclusive evidence that the violations contained therein occurred and shall be admissible without further evidentiary foundation. Any certifications or declarations authorized under RCW 9A.72.085 containing evidence that the respondent has failed to comply with the order or any parts thereof, and is therefore in default, or that the respondent has failed to avail itself of judicial review in accordance with subsection 14.35.200.A, shall also be admissible without further evidentiary foundation.

D. In considering matters brought under subsections 14.35.220.B and 14.35.220.C, the Seattle Municipal Court may include within its judgment all terms, conditions, and remedies contained in the Director's Order or the order of the Hearing Examiner, whichever is applicable, that are consistent with the provisions of this Chapter 14.35.

14.35.230 Private right of action

A. Any person or class of persons that suffers an injury as a result of a violation of this Chapter 14.35, or is the subject of prohibited retaliation under Section 14.35.120, may bring a civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction against the employer or other person violating this Chapter 14.35 and, upon prevailing, may be awarded reasonable attorney fees and costs and such legal or equitable relief as may be appropriate to remedy the violation including, without limitation: the payment of any unpaid compensation plus interest due to the person and liquidated damages in an additional amount of up to twice the unpaid compensation; and a penalty payable to any aggrieved party of up to $5,565.10 if the aggrieved party was subject to prohibited retaliation. Interest shall accrue from the date the unpaid compensation was first due at 12 percent per annum, or the maximum rate permitted under RCW 19.52.020.

B. For purposes of this Section 14.35.230, “person” includes any entity a member of which has suffered an injury or retaliation, or any other individual or entity acting on behalf of an aggrieved party that has suffered an injury or retaliation.

C. For purposes of determining membership within a class of persons entitled to bring an action under this Section 14.35.230, two or more employees are similarly situated if they:

1. Are or were hired for the same employer or employers, whether concurrently or otherwise, at some point during the applicable statute of limitations period,
2. Allege one or more violations that raise similar questions as to liability, and
3. Seek similar forms of relief.

D. For purposes of subsection 14.35.230.C, employees shall not be considered dissimilar solely because the employees’:

1. Claims seek damages that differ in amount, or
2. Job titles or other means of classifying employees differ in ways that are unrelated to their claims.

E. An order issued by the court may include a requirement for an employer to submit a compliance report to the court and to the Agency.

14.35.233 Waiver

Any waiver by an individual of any provisions of this Chapter 14.35 shall be deemed contrary to public policy and shall be void and unenforceable.

14.35.235 Encouragement of more generous policies

A. Nothing in this Chapter 14.35 shall be construed to discourage or prohibit an employer from the adoption or retention of parking reimbursement policies more generous than the one required by this Chapter 14.35.

B. Nothing in this Chapter 14.35 shall be construed as diminishing the obligation of the employer to comply with any contract, collective bargaining agreement, employment benefit plan, or other agreement providing more generous parking reimbursement policies to an employee than required by this Chapter 14.35.

14.35.240 Other legal requirements; effect on other laws

This Chapter 14.35 provides minimum requirements for providing covered employees with parking reimbursements and shall not be construed to preempt, limit, impose additive requirements, or otherwise affect the applicability of any other law, regulation, requirement, policy, or standard that provides for parking reimbursements, or that extends other protections to employees; and nothing in this Chapter 14.35 shall be interpreted or applied so as to create any power or duty in conflict with federal or state law. Nor shall this Chapter 14.35 be construed to preclude any person aggrieved from seeking judicial review of any final administrative decision or order made under this Chapter 14.35 affecting such person. Nothing in this Section 14.35.240 shall be construed as restricting an employee’s right to pursue any other remedies at law or equity for violation of their rights.

14.35.250 Severability

The provisions of this Chapter 14.35 are declared to be separate and severable. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section, subsection, or portion of this Chapter 14.35, or the application thereof to any employer, employee, person, or circumstance, is held to be invalid, it shall not affect the validity of the remainder of this Chapter 14.35, or the validity of its application to other persons or circumstances.
