CITY OF SEATTLE

ORDINANCE _____

COUNCIL BILL _____

AN ORDINANCE relating to housing regulations; adding a new Chapter 14.09 (Fair Chance Housing) to the Seattle Municipal Code to regulate the use of criminal history in rental housing; authorizing the Seattle Office for Civil Rights to enforce the regulations set out in this new chapter; and amending Section

3.14.931 of the Seattle Municipal Code to expand the Seattle Human Rights Commission's duties. WHEREAS, the U.S. Department of Justice has estimated one in every three adults in the United States has either an arrest or conviction record; and

WHEREAS, the Center for American Progress reports that nearly half of all children in the U.S. have one parent with a criminal record; and

WHEREAS, over the past two decades, there has been a rise in the use of criminal background checks to screen prospective tenants for housing; and

WHEREAS, a study by the Vera Institute of Justice has shown that people with stable housing are more likely to successfully reintegrate into society and are less likely to reoffend; and

WHEREAS, individuals and parents who have served their time must be able to secure housing if they are to re-enter into society to successfully rebuild their lives and care for their families; and

WHEREAS, African Americans are 3.4 percent of Washington's population but account for nearly 18.4 percent of Washington's prison population; Latinos are 11.2 percent of Washington's population but account for 13.2 percent of Washington's prison population; and Native Americans are 1.3 percent of the state population but account for 4.7 percent of Washington's prison population; and

WHEREAS, racial inequities in the criminal justice system are compounded by racial bias in the rental applicant selection process, as demonstrated by fair housing testing conducted by the Seattle Office for Civil Rights in 2013 that found evidence of different treatment based on race in 64 percent of tests, including some cases where African American applicants were told more often than their white counterparts that they would have to undergo a criminal background check as part of the screening process; and

WHEREAS, there is no sociological research establishing a relationship between a criminal record and an unsuccessful tenancy; and

WHEREAS, an Urban Institute study stated, "men who found [stable] housing within the first month after release were less likely to return to prison during the first year out"; and

WHEREAS, a study performed in Cleveland found that “obtaining stable housing within the first month after release inhibited re-incarceration”; and

WHEREAS, studies show that, after four to seven years where no re-offense has occurred, a person with a prior conviction is no more likely to commit a crime than someone who has never had a conviction; and

WHEREAS, research shows higher recidivism occurs within the first two years of release and is mitigated when individuals have access to safe and affordable housing and employment; and

WHEREAS, a 2015 study reported that juveniles on the sex offender registry had considerable difficulty in accessing stable housing because of their registration status, which contributed to negative mental health outcomes; and

WHEREAS, more than 90 percent of arrests of juveniles for sex offenses represent a one-time event that does not recur, and studies have repeatedly shown low recidivism rates ranging from three percent to four percent; and

WHEREAS, documents and research relating to the information cited in the recitals is located in Clerk File 320351; and

WHEREAS, The City of Seattle has developed a Race and Social Justice Initiative (RSJI) to eliminate institutional racism and create a community where equity in opportunity exists for everyone; and

WHEREAS, the City’s Office for Civil Rights (OCR) works to advance civil rights and end barriers to equity; and

WHEREAS, in 2010, residents of Sojourner Place Transitional Housing, Village of Hope, and other community groups called on the City to address barriers to housing faced by people with prior records; and

WHEREAS, in response, OCR and the Seattle Human Rights Commission held two public forums in 2010 and 2011, bringing together over 300 people including community members with arrest and conviction records, landlords, and employers to share their concerns; and

WHEREAS, in 2013, the City Council passed the Seattle Jobs Assistance Ordinance, now titled the Fair

Chance Employment Ordinance, to address barriers in employment; and

WHEREAS, since 2013, the Office of Housing has worked with nonprofit housing providers to share best practices in tenant screening to address racial inequities; and

WHEREAS, in September 2014 the Council adopted Resolution 31546, in which the Mayor and Council jointly convened the Seattle Housing Affordability and Livability Agenda (HALA) Advisory Committee to evaluate potential strategies to make Seattle more affordable, equitable, and inclusive; and in particular, to promote the development and preservation of affordable housing for residents of the City; and

WHEREAS, in July 2015, HALA published its Final Advisory Committee Recommendations and the Mayor published Housing Seattle: A Roadmap to an Affordable and Livable City, which outlines a multi-pronged approach of bold and innovative solutions to address Seattle's housing affordability crisis; and

WHEREAS, in October 2015, the Mayor proposed and Council adopted Resolution 31622, declaring the City's intent to expeditiously consider strategies recommended by the Housing Affordability Livability Agenda (HALA) Advisory Committee; and

WHEREAS, the Mayor's Housing and Affordability and Livability Agenda recommended that the City address barriers to housing faced by people with criminal records, and the Mayor responded by creating a Fair Chance Housing Committee; and

WHEREAS, the Fair Chance Housing Committee provided input to OCR on a legislative proposal to address these barriers; and

WHEREAS, in 2016, the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) issued guidance on the application of the Fair Housing Act to the use of arrest and conviction records in rental housing, stating that a housing provider may be in violation of fair housing laws if their policy or practice does not serve a substantial, legitimate, nondiscriminatory interest, due to the potential for criminal record screening to have a disparate impact on African American and other communities of color; and

WHEREAS, except for landlords operating federally assisted housing programs, conducting a criminal background check to screen tenants is a discretionary choice for landlords that they have no legal duty under City or state law to fulfill; and

WHEREAS, in 2016, the Seattle City Council passed Resolution 31669, affirming HUD's guidance and the work of the Mayor's Fair Chance Housing Committee; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY OF SEATTLE AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. The Council expresses the following concerning implementation of Seattle Municipal Code Chapter 14.09:

A. The implementation of Seattle Municipal Code Chapter 14.09 will consist of:

1. Seattle Office for Civil Rights will conduct regular fair housing testing to ensure compliance, decrease racial bias, and evaluate the impacts of Chapter 14.09; and
2. Seattle Office for Civil Rights will launch a Fair Housing Home Program for landlords. The program's goal will be to reduce racial bias and biases against other protected classes in tenant selection. Completion of the training program will result in a certification of a Fair Housing Home program. For pre-finding settlement and conciliation agreements under Chapter 14.09, landlords will be required to participate in the Fair Housing Home program; and
3. The City of Seattle will work at the state level to reduce the impact of criminal convictions; and
4. The City of Seattle will explore additional mechanisms to reduce the greatest barriers to housing for individuals with criminal conviction records through the Re-Entry Taskforce, convened by the Seattle Office for Civil Rights.

Section 2. A new Chapter 14.09 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows:

2. Require disclosure, inquire about, or take an adverse action against a prospective occupant, a tenant or a member of their household, based on any arrest record, conviction record, or criminal

C. If a consumer report is used by a landlord as part of the screening process, the landlord must provide the name and address of the consumer reporting agency and the prospective occupant's or tenant's rights to obtain a free copy of the consumer report in the event of a denial or other adverse action, and to dispute the accuracy of information appearing in the consumer report.

The landlord may rebut the presumption with clear and convincing evidence that the adverse action was taken for a permissible purpose.

E. Proof of retaliation under this Section 14.09.030 shall be sufficient upon a showing that a landlord or any other person has taken an adverse action against a person and the person's exercise of rights protected in this Section 14.09.030 was a motivating factor in the adverse action, unless the landlord can prove that the action would have been taken in the absence of such protected activity.

F. The protections afforded under this Section 14.09.030 shall apply to any person who mistakenly but in good faith alleges violations of this Chapter 14.09.

Any guidelines or rules promulgated by the Director shall have the force and effect of law and may be relied on by landlords, prospective occupants, tenants, and other parties to determine their rights and responsibilities under this Chapter 14.09.

D. The Director shall maintain data on the number of complaints filed pursuant to this Chapter 14.09, demographic information on the complainants, the number of investigations it conducts and the disposition of every complaint and investigation. Upon the filing of a charge alleging a violation, the Director shall cause to be served upon the charging party a written notice acknowledging the filing, and notifying the charging party of the time limits and choice of forums provided in this Chapter 14.09.

B. A charge shall not be rejected as insufficient because of failure to include all required information if the Department determines that the charge substantially satisfies the informational requirements necessary for processing.

C. A charge alleging a violation or pattern of violations under this Chapter 14.09 may also be filed by the Director whenever the Director has reason to believe that any person has been engaged or is engaging in a violation under this Chapter 14.09.

14.09.050 Time for filing charges

Charges filed under this Chapter 14.09 must be filed with the Department within one year after the alleged violation has occurred or terminated.

14.09.055 Charge-Amendments

- A. The charging party or the Department may amend a charge:
1. To cure technical defects or omissions;
 2. To clarify allegations made in the charge;
 3. To add allegations related to or arising out of the subject matter set forth or attempted to be set forth in the charge;
 4. To add as a charging party a person who is, during the course of the investigation, identified as an aggrieved person; or
 5. To add or substitute as a respondent a person who was not originally named as a respondent, but who is, during the course of the investigation, identified as a respondent. For jurisdictional purposes, such amendments shall relate back to the date the original charge was first filed.

B. The charging party may amend a charge to include allegations of retaliation which arose after the filing of the original charge. Such amendment must be filed within one year after the occurrence of the retaliation, and prior to the Department's issuance of findings of fact and determination with respect to the original charge. Such amendments may be made at any time during the investigation of the original charge so long as the Department will have adequate time to investigate the additional allegations and the parties will have adequate time to present the Department with evidence concerning the additional allegations before the issuance of findings of fact and a determination.

C. When a charge is amended to add or substitute a respondent, the Director shall serve upon the new respondent within 20 days:

1. The amended charge;
2. The notice required under subsection 14.09.060.A; and
3. A statement of the basis for the Director's belief that the new respondent is properly named as a respondent. For jurisdictional purposes, amendment of a charge to add or substitute a respondent shall relate back to the date the original charge was first filed.

14.09.060 Notice of charge and investigation

A. The Director shall promptly, and in any event within 20 days of filing of the charge, cause to be served on or mailed, by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the respondent, a copy of the charge along with a notice advising the respondent of respondent's procedural rights and obligations under this Chapter 14.09. The Director shall promptly make an investigation of the charge.

B. The investigation shall be directed to ascertain the facts concerning the violation alleged in the charge, and shall be conducted in an objective and impartial manner.

C. During the period beginning with the filing of the charge and ending with the issuance of the findings of fact, the Department shall, to the extent feasible, engage in settlement discussions with respect to the charge. A pre-finding settlement agreement arising out of the settlement discussions shall be an agreement between the charging party and the respondent and shall be subject to approval by the Director. Each pre-finding settlement agreement is a public record. Failure to comply with the pre-finding settlement agreement may be enforced under Section 14.09.100.

D. During the investigation, the Director shall consider any statement of position or evidence with respect to the allegations of the charge which the charging party or the respondent wishes to submit, including the respondent's answer to the charge. The Director shall have authority to sign and issue subpoenas requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses, the production of evidence including but not limited to books, records, correspondence, or documents in the possession or under the control of the person subpoenaed, and access to evidence for the purpose of examination and copying, and conduct discovery procedures which may include the taking of interrogatories and oral depositions.

E. The Director may require a fact-finding conference or participation in another process with the respondent and any of respondent's agents and witnesses and the charging party during the investigation in order to define the issues, determine which elements are undisputed, resolve those issues which can be resolved, and afford an opportunity to discuss or negotiate settlement. Parties may have their legal counsel present if desired.

14.09.065 Procedure for investigations

A. A respondent may file with the Department an answer to the charge no later than ten days after receiving notice of the charge.

B. The Director shall commence investigation of the charge within 30 days after the filing of the charge. The investigation shall be completed within 100 days after the filing of the charge, unless it is impracticable to do so. If the Director is unable to complete the investigation within 100 days after the filing of the charge, the Director shall notify the charging party and the respondent of the reasons therefor. The Director shall make final administrative disposition of a charge within one year of the date of filing of the charge, unless it is impracticable to do so. If the Director is unable to make a final administrative disposition within one year of the filing of the charge, the Director shall notify the charging party and the respondent of the reasons therefor.

C. If the Director determines that it is necessary to carry out the purposes of this Chapter 14.09, the Director may, in writing, request the City Attorney to seek prompt judicial action for temporary or preliminary relief to enjoin any violation pending final disposition of a charge.

14.09.070 Findings of fact and determination of reasonable cause or no reasonable cause

A. The results of the investigation shall be reduced to written findings of fact and a determination shall be made by the Director that there is or is not reasonable cause for believing that a violation has been, is being or is about to be committed, which determination shall also be in writing and issued with the written findings of fact. The findings and determination are “issued” when signed by the Director and mailed to the parties.

B. Once issued to the parties, the Director’s findings of fact, determination, and order may not be amended or withdrawn except upon the agreement of the parties or in response to an order by the Commission after an appeal taken pursuant to Section 14.09.075; provided, that the Director may correct clerical mistakes or errors arising from oversight or omission upon a motion from a party or upon the Director’s own motion.

14.09.075 Determination of no reasonable cause-Appeal from and dismissal

If a determination is made that there is no reasonable cause for believing a violation under this Chapter 14.09 has been, is being, or is about to be committed, the charging party may appeal such determination to the Commission within 30 days of the date the determination is signed by the Director by filing a written statement of appeal with the Commission. The Commission shall promptly deliver a copy of the statement to the Department and respondent and shall promptly consider and act upon such appeal by either affirming the Director’s determination or, if the Commission believes the Director should investigate further, remanding it to the Director with a request for specific further investigation. In the event no appeal is taken, or such appeal results in affirmance, or if the Commission has not decided the appeal within 90 days from the date the appeal statement is filed, the determination of the Director shall be final and the charge deemed dismissed and the same shall be entered on the records of the Department.

14.09.080 Determination of reasonable cause-Conciliation

A. If the Director determines that reasonable cause exists to believe that a violation has occurred, is occurring, or is about to occur, the Director shall endeavor to eliminate the violation through efforts to reach conciliation. Conditions of conciliation may include, but are not limited to, the elimination of the violation, rent refunds or credits, reinstatement to tenancy, affirmative recruiting or advertising measures, payment of actual damages, and reasonable attorney's fees and costs, or such other remedies that will carry out the purposes of this Chapter 14.09. The Director may also require payment of a civil penalty as set forth in Section 14.09.100.

B. Any post-finding conciliation agreement shall be an agreement between the charging party and the respondent and shall be subject to the approval of the Director. The Director shall enter an order setting forth the terms of the agreement, which may include a requirement that the parties report to the Director on the matter of compliance. Copies of such order shall be delivered to all affected parties and shall be subject to public disclosure.

C. If conciliation fails and no agreement can be reached, the Director shall issue a written finding to that effect and furnish a copy of the finding to the charging party and to the respondent. Upon issuance of the finding, except a case in which a City department is a respondent, the Director shall promptly cause to be delivered the entire investigatory file, including the charge and any and all findings made, to the City Attorney for further proceedings and hearing under this Chapter 14.09, pursuant to Section 14.09.085.

14.09.085 Complaint and hearing

A. Following submission of the investigatory file from the Director, the City Attorney shall, except as set forth in subsection 14.09.085.B, prepare a complaint against such respondent relating to the charge and facts discovered during the Department's investigation. The City Attorney shall file the complaint with the Hearing Examiner in the name of the Department and represent the interests of the Department at all subsequent proceedings.
