CITY OF SEATTLE

ORDINANCE _____

COUNCIL BILL _____

AN ORDINANCE relating to the City’s criminal code; removing the separate crime of malicious harassment and creating a special allegation of hate crime motivation; and amending Section 12A.06.115 of the Seattle Municipal Code.

WHEREAS, hate crimes in Washington state are currently prosecuted as “malicious harassment” in both felony and misdemeanor forms; and

WHEREAS, Seattle’s misdemeanor malicious harassment law is limited to covering crimes based on the protected classes of homelessness, marital status, political ideology, age, or parental status; and

WHEREAS, the state felony malicious harassment law covers the protected classes of race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, mental handicap, physical handicap, and sensory handicap; and

WHEREAS, the Seattle City Auditor released a report on May 9, 2019, finding that reports of hate crimes have risen by almost 400 percent since 2012; and

WHEREAS, the City Auditor’s report indicated that reports of crimes of malicious harassment increased 346 percent since 2012; and

WHEREAS, the City Auditor’s report found that reports of crime with bias elements increased 378 percent since 2012 and reports of non-criminal bias incidents increased 448 percent since 2012; and

WHEREAS, in the 2019 legislative session the Washington Legislature enacted Engrossed Substitute House Bill 1732, which changed the name of the felony malicious harassment offense to “hate crime offense” and clarified terms for people with disabilities and for gender identity; and

WHEREAS, creating a misdemeanor special allegation for hate crimes in Seattle would allow for hate and bias crimes that are prosecuted as misdemeanors to be designated and identified as hate crimes; and

WHEREAS, removing malice from the elements to be proven in the special allegation allows prosecution of hate or bias crimes at the misdemeanor level for protected classes currently covered by the state felony law and City-level protected classes, which are race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, mental handicap, physical handicap, and sensory handicap, homelessness, marital status, political ideology, age, or parental status; NOW, THEREFORE,
