

WHEREAS, HB 2015 requires that a public facilities district within a county with a population of 1,500,000 or more must make quarterly payments to a city in which a convention and trade center is located from tax revenue from short-term rentals collected by a public facilities district; and

WHEREAS, as a result of HB 2015, the public facilities district that operates the Washington State Convention Center will impose the lodging tax under RCW 36.100.040 on short-term rentals in Seattle; and

WHEREAS, HB 2015 requires that the payments made to a city must be used to support community-initiated equitable development and affordable housing programs, as determined by the city in its sole discretion; and

WHEREAS, allowing all short-term rental operators who offered units for short-term rental uses prior to September 30, 2017 to continue to operate those units provides more certainty that the revenue projections for the short-term rental tax will be realized and sufficient to support proposed expenditures in 2019 and 2020; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY OF SEATTLE AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Section 6.600.030 of the Seattle Municipal Code, enacted by Ordinance 125490, is amended as follows:

6.600.030 Definitions

"Short-term rental operator" or "operator" means any person who is the owner of a dwelling unit established under Title 23, or portion thereof, who offers or provides that dwelling unit, or portion thereof, for short-term rental use, or a person who is the tenant of a dwelling unit, or portion thereof, who offered or provided a short term rental as set forth in subsection ((6.600.040.B.2)) 6.600.040.B.1.

Section 2. Section 6.600.040 of the Seattle Municipal Code, enacted by Ordinance 125490, is amended as follows:

6.600.040 License required

A. Platforms. It is unlawful for any person to operate as a platform within Seattle without a valid platform license issued pursuant to this Chapter 6.600.

B. Operators. It is unlawful for any person to operate as a short-term rental operator within the City without a valid short-term rental operator license issued pursuant to this Chapter 6.600. A short-term rental operator license permits an operator to offer or provide a maximum of one dwelling unit, or portion thereof, for short term rental use, or a maximum of two dwelling units if one of the units is the operator's primary residence, except for the following:

1. ~~((An operator who offered or provided a short-term rental outside of the locations described in subsections 6.600.040.B.2 or 6.600.040.B.3 prior to September 30, 2017, may obtain a short-term rental operator license allowing that operator to continue to operate up to two dwelling units for short-term rental use, subject to the requirements of subsection 6.600.040.B.4. Upon renewal of the license after one year of operations, the operator may obtain a license allowing that operator to: continue to operate the two units; and add a third dwelling unit if the unit is the operator's primary residence.~~

~~2.)) An operator who offered or provided a short-term rental ((in the Downtown Urban Center, south of Olive Way and north of Cherry Street, as established in the Seattle Comprehensive Plan (2016),)) prior to September 30, 2017, may obtain a short-term rental operator license allowing the operator to continue to operate those units and to offer or provide up to one additional dwelling units for short-term rental use, or a maximum of two dwelling units, if one of the units is the operator's primary residence, subject to the requirements of subsection ((6.600.040.B.4)) 6.600.040.B.2.~~

~~((3. An operator who offered or provided a short-term rental in any dwelling units within a multifamily building constructed after 2012 that contains no more than five dwelling units established by permit under Title 23 and is located in the First Hill/Capitol Hill Urban Center, as established in the Seattle Comprehensive Plan, prior to September 30, 2017, may obtain a short-term rental operator license allowing~~

~~them to continue to operate those units and to offer or provide up to one additional dwelling units for short term rental use, or a maximum of two dwelling units, if one of the units is the operator's primary residence, subject to the requirements of subsection 6.600.040.B.4.~~

4.)) 2. If the license applicant wishes to continue operating a short-term rental ~~((in a location))~~ as described in subsection ~~((s))~~ 6.600.040.B.1 ~~((, 6.600.040.B.2, or 6.600.040.B.3))~~ the applicant must provide the Director with the following evidence of prior short-term rental use:

a. A business license tax certificate issued by the Department of Finance and Administrative Services for the short-term rental use, in effect on prior to September 30, 2017; and

b. Records demonstrating collection and remittance of all applicable local, state and federal taxes within the 12-month period prior to September 30, 2017; ~~((and))~~

c. A registry identifying the dates the dwelling unit was used as short-term rental within the 12-month period prior to September 30, 2017 ~~((,))~~; and

d. Certification that, if the applicant is a tenant ~~((renter))~~, the owner has authorized the tenant's operation of the dwelling unit as a short-term rental. If requested by the Director, the applicant shall provide documentation demonstrating that the owner has provided that authorization.
