¹ Rule VI.C.3 of the General Rules and Procedures of the Seattle City Council requires that a scheduled meeting will be moved to the following Friday if: a. The regular schedule place on a legal holiday; or b. A legal holiday moves a City Council meeting to a day on which the meeting was scheduled. ² Rule VII.H.4 of the General Rules and Procedures of the Seattle City Council states that standing committee meetings are suspended (canceled) from the time the Council's Select Budget Committee receives the Mayor's proposed budget (typically the end of September) to the time the Council meets (typically the third week of November). Special standing committee meetings may be called for legislative action is required within a set time (e.g., quasi-judicial actions with 90-day decision review); or • Upon the approval of the President and the Chair of the Select Budget Committee in consultation with the Central Staff Director.

Section 2. The duties of the standing committees are as follows:

Community Economic Development: To provide policy direction and oversight and to deliberate and make recommendations on legislative matters relating to:

- economic development policies and programs; including the Office of Economic Development, small business development and support, Business Improvement Areas, workforce development, and improving access and opportunities to education and training for low- and middle-income workers, youth and communities of color;

- civil rights issues, including the Office for Civil Rights, except for issues related to tenant rights and protections;
- arts and cultural activities, nightlife issues, and special events;
- film and music activities; and
- the equitable development initiative and its projects.

Finance and Housing: To provide policy direction and oversight and to deliberate and make recommendations on legislative matters relating to:

- the financial management and policies of the City and its agents, including the operating and capital budgets, levies, taxes, revenue, audits, and judgments and claims against the City (the Finance and Housing Committee is the Finance Committee required by the Seattle City Charter);
- oversight of the City’s public works construction projects except as otherwise specified;
- the City Employees’ Retirement System;
- the Department of Finance and Administrative Services, including the Seattle Animal Shelter, the City’s fleets and facilities, the Customer Service Bureau, and other administrative functions;
- housing policies and programs, including the Office of Housing, investing and promoting the development and preservation of affordable housing for workers, families, and retirees;
- the Office of Labor Standards; and
- monitoring implementation of the priority hire program and promoting worker protections.

Governance and Education: To provide policy direction and oversight and to deliberate and make recommendations on legislative matters relating to:

- regional, state, federal, and other governmental matters including Charter review, code improvement, the Office of Intergovernmental Relations, and rules of the City Council;
- City personnel issues, including labor-management relations, collective bargaining agreements, and other issues related to salary rates, hours, and other conditions of employment;

- the Office of the Employee Ombud;
- the City Auditor;
- the Office of Hearing Examiner;
- ethics and elections, including the Seattle Ethics and Elections Commission;
- immigrant and refugee rights, including the Office of Immigrant and Refugee Affairs; and
- education and early learning initiatives, including the Department of Education and Early Learning, the City’s Families, Education, Preschool, and Promise Levy, with a goal of improving City schools and student success rates and reducing achievement gaps.

Land Use and Neighborhoods: To provide policy direction and oversight and to deliberate and make recommendations on legislative matters relating to:

- planning and land use, including comprehensive planning, community development, zoning, design, and land use regulations, including the Office of Planning and Community Development, and the Seattle Department of Construction and Inspections, except for issues related to rental regulations;
- Major Institution Master Plans and quasi-judicial land use decisions; and
- the Department of Neighborhoods, including neighborhood planning, engagement and outreach, funding opportunities, and historic preservation.
