CITY OF SEATTLE
ORDINANCE _____

COUNCIL BILL _____

AN ORDINANCE relating to Legislative Department staff; increasing the number of Legislative Assistant positions; amending Ordinance 118851; and amending the Legislative Assistant Compensation Plan Administrative Guidelines.

WHEREAS, Ordinance 118851 provided for a new compensation plan for exempt Legislative Assistants in the Legislative Department and incorporated the Legislative Assistant Compensation Plan Administrative Guidelines; and

WHEREAS, Ordinance 118851 provided for each City Councilmember to receive an annual salary budget and to hire up to three full-time equivalent positions as Legislative Assistants; and

WHEREAS, additional staff support is desired in City Councilmember offices to address the increased workload resulting from the voter-approved charter amendment to elect a majority of the City Council positions by district; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY OF SEATTLE AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. The following new positions, which are exempt from Civil Service and Public Safety Civil Service rules and laws, are created:

Department	Position Title	Position Status	Number
Legislative	Legislative Assistant	Full-time	9

The City Councilmembers or the City Councilmembers' designees are authorized to fill these positions subject to applicable personnel rules and laws.

Section 2. Subsection 2.A. of Ordinance 118851 is amended as follows:

A. In lieu of individual position authority for Legislative Assistants, each City Councilmember shall receive an annual salary budget. Within that budgeted lid, each City Councilmember may hire up to ~~((three (3)))~~ four ~~((full-time))~~ full-time equivalent positions, but no combination of staff may exceed the budgeted lid. All staff will be assigned the ordinance title of Legislative Assistant, and may be given any working title deemed appropriate by the City Councilmember to whom they report.

Section 3. The Legislative Assistant Compensation Plan Administrative Guidelines, incorporated by Ordinance 118851, are amended as follows:

LEGISLATIVE ASSISTANT COMPENSATION PLAN ADMINISTRATIVE GUIDELINES

The following guidelines are intended to facilitate the implementation and administration of a new compensation plan for Legislative Assistants. These guidelines may be revised by the City Council by resolution at any time based on Councilmembers' agreement to administer the legislated compensation plan in a manner other than provided herein.
