AN ORDINANCE relating to strengthening The City of Seattle's policies for conducting City business with partners that are committed to fair business practices; adding Chapter 20.46 to the Seattle Municipal Code; amending the revised City of Seattle Investment Policies adopted by Resolution 31525; and requesting the Mayor and Director of Finance and Administrative Services to take certain actions, including not renewing the Contract for Bank Depository Services with Wells Fargo Bank beyond the initial term and refraining from making new investments in Wells Fargo securities for a period of three years.

WHEREAS, The City of Seattle is committed to protecting the City's interests and the public's trust by managing and spending City funds in a fiscally responsible and prudent manner; and

WHEREAS, as part of that commitment, it is a priority of The City of Seattle to conduct City business with partners who are committed to engaging in fair business practices; and

WHEREAS, the Seattle City Council has passed certain ordinances, including but not limited to Ordinance Nos. 119748 (1999, nondiscrimination in benefits), 121717 (2005, equality in contracting), and 124250 (2013, socially responsible banking), as amended from time to time, which have collectively established a framework of contracting to consider certain social equity and responsibility factors in choosing whom the City conducts its business with and enforcing the goals and requirements of that framework; and

WHEREAS, the Seattle City Council also passed Resolution 31525 in 2014, adopting revised City of Seattle Investment Policies, including Policy 4, Social Policies, which guides the Director of Finance and Administrative Services to seek opportunities to conduct investment business with institutions that, by their charter, seek to benefit the common good and do not solely pursue maximum profit; and

WHEREAS, after creating “millions of unauthorized bank and credit card accounts,” CNN Money reported on September 8, 2016, that Wells Fargo National Bank (“Wells Fargo”) “fired 5,300 employees over the last few years related to the shady behavior;” and Vanity Fair reported on January 24, 2017, that those employees “were thrown under the bus for the scandal while management walked away scot-free;” and

WHEREAS, In the Public Interest’s report The Banks That Finance Private Prison Companies (November 2016) stated, “Wells Fargo is complicit with private prison companies in contributing to and enabling mass incarceration and the criminalization of immigration” and expounded how Wells Fargo provides financial services to GEO Group, which owns and operates the Northwest Detention Center, a private prison near Seattle incarcerating immigrant detainees; and

WHEREAS, Food and Water Watch reported on September 6, 2016, that Wells Fargo is one of the largest contributors to the DAPL, having invested $467,000,000 in project-level loans and revolving credit, which enabled repression of and intimidation against nearly 200 Indian Nations, environmental organizations, journalists, and other non-violent demonstrators; and

WHEREAS, President Donald Trump signed an executive order on January 24, 2017, with the subject line, “Construction of the Dakota Access Pipeline,” instructing the United States Army Corps of Engineers to “review and approve in an expedited manner, to the extent permitted by law and as warranted, and with such conditions as are necessary or appropriate, requests for approvals to construct and operate the DAPL;” and

WHEREAS, approximately 1,000 Seattleites joined a protest of this executive order in Westlake Park the same day it was signed in an emergency action organized by the Defund DAPL: Seattle Action Coalition;

WHEREAS, the Seattle City Council finds that Wells Fargo’s investment in the Dakota Access Pipeline and recent misconduct and dishonest business practices are contrary to The City of Seattle’s strong commitment to conducting its business with socially responsible banks, and it is in the City’s best interest to strengthen its framework for social equity and responsibility in contracting by enacting authority and responsibilities to ensure the City conducts business with partners who are committed to and demonstrate engaging in fair and responsible business practices; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY OF SEATTLE AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. The City Council finds and declares:

A. Wells Fargo National Bank (“Wells Fargo”), pursuant to a competitive procurement in 2012, currently provides services to The City of Seattle under the Contract for Bank Depository Services with an initial contract term through December 31, 2018, which includes managing more than $3 billion of Seattle’s operating account.

B. In September 2016, the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau issued a final Consent Order (File No. 2016-CFPB-0015), the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency issued final Cease and Desist, Civil Money Penalty and Restitution Orders (File Nos. 2016-077 and 2016-079) and the City and County of Los Angeles reached a stipulated final judgement in its lawsuit People v. Wells Fargo & Co., et al., Los Angeles Superior Court, Case No. BC580778, (collectively, the “Orders”) requiring Wells Fargo to pay restitution and a total of $185 million in civil penalties to all three enforcement agencies for fraudulently opening more than two million unauthorized consumer deposit and credit card accounts.

C. Wells Fargo has been the subject of additional enforcement orders during the last two years, including two more Consumer Financial Protection Bureau orders (File No. 2016-CFPB-0013 (August 2016) and Case No. 1:15-cv-00179-RDB (February 2015)), involving findings that Wells Fargo engaged in illegal private student loan servicing practices and an illegal marketing-services-kickback scheme with a title company, and one Office of the Comptroller of the Currency order (File No. 2016-082 (September 2016)) involving findings that Wells Fargo engaged in violations of the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act. These orders resulted in Wells Fargo paying approximately $48 million in civil penalties and restitution to students, servicemembers, and other mortgage borrowers.

D. On October 6, 2016, the President of the Seattle City Council, the Chair of the Finance and Budget Committee, and the Mayor of Seattle took immediate action to discontinue negotiations with Wells Fargo as lender on a $100-million bond financing for Seattle City Light because the Orders resulted in a loss of confidence in Wells Fargo as a trusted business partner for conducting City business, and requested Wells Fargo to provide information regarding corrective actions taken including reparations to those harmed and actions to ensure that the practices would not occur again.

E. On October 13, 2016, Wells Fargo responded to the City's letter.
