CITY OF SEATTLE

ORDINANCE _____

COUNCIL BILL _____

AN ORDINANCE relating to the City’s criminal code; removing the crime of drug traffic loitering and associated references in the Seattle Municipal Code; amending Section 10.09.010 of the Seattle Municipal Code and repealing Section 12A.20.050 of the Seattle Municipal Code.

WHEREAS, the crime of drug traffic loitering was added to the Seattle Municipal Code in 1990, during the “War on Drugs,” an effort to stop illegal drug use and trafficking; and

WHEREAS, the approach of the “War of Drugs” was to criminalize more behaviors, increase arrests, and require mandatory minimum sentences; and

WHEREAS, while those strategies increased arrest and incarceration rates, they did not proportionately decrease the prevalence of drug use and trade; and

WHEREAS, since that time, the “War on Drugs” has been shown to have deeply disproportionate impacts on communities of color; and

WHEREAS, while people of color already experience discrimination at all stages of the criminal justice system, discrimination is particularly clear in the case of drug law violations, with nearly 80 percent of people in federal prison and nearly 60 percent of people in state prison for drug offenses are Black or

Latinx; and

WHEREAS, research has shown that there is double the likelihood that prosecutors pursue mandatory minimum sentences for Black people than for white people charges with the same offense; and

WHEREAS, in 2015, the Council passed Resolution 31637, creating a workgroup to examine how the City could assist formerly incarcerated persons “reenter” their communities; and

WHEREAS, the Reentry Workgroup released its final report in October 2018, which included seven strategies and recommendations to reduce barriers for people living with criminal history; and

WHEREAS, one of the strategies to reduce incarceration costs and system involvement is to decriminalize; and

WHEREAS, the Reentry Workgroup “recommends the City move away from reliance on the criminal legal system to address behaviors related to poverty, illness, and oppression...[and] aim to reduce the criminalization of poverty and the disproportionate representation of Black and Indigenous individuals, other targeted communities of color, and people with disabilities within Seattle’s criminal legal system” and “instead develop responses that do not burden individuals with criminal history or the trauma of incarceration;” and

WHEREAS, among the specific recommendations within a decriminalizing strategy is to repeal the crime of drug traffic loitering; and

WHEREAS, in response to the concerns raised by the Reentry Workgroup, the City Attorney decided to decline to prosecute drug traffic loitering; and

WHEREAS, while declining to prosecute is an important first step, as long as the crime still exists in the Seattle Municipal Code, a change in leadership or policy in the City Attorney’s Office could result in renewed prosecution of drug traffic loitering; and

WHEREAS, to remedy an outdated approach to drug enforcement, prevent future prosecution of drug traffic loitering, and eliminate the opportunity for further disproportionality in the criminal legal system, removing drug traffic loitering from the Seattle Municipal Code is a key next step; NOW,

THEREFORE,
