Background: Linda Lowry's creative energy, enterprising spirit, and passion for the arts are evident in all her ventures whether it be the motivation that drives success in her role as Director of Opportunities at Seattle Magazine, her focus on enhancing relationships through connecting community leaders with the private and non-profit sector, or her active participation on advisory boards and committees that demonstrate her love of the arts and her initiatives for a diverse, and equitable community. Linda founded the Art Committee at the Columbia Tower Club (CTC) in 2010, whereby she has been part of a passionate group that has promoted community engagement of the arts. The annual highlight of this committee is a fundraising gala to support local artistic groups such as: Arts Fund, Cornish College of the Arts, The Film School, SANCA, The Michael J. Owens Music Foundation, to name a few. Linda studied at Chapman University where she was a collegiate athlete in Women's soccer and received her BA in Political Science/International Law. Linda remains active in the greater Seattle community as evident by her volunteer efforts with the following organizations: Executive Advisory Council for Providence O 'Christmas Trees, Chair of the DEI Committee at the Women's University Club. Linda also embraces opportunities to assist like-minded entrepreneurial efforts and women in business and currently serves on the advisory board for PartnerTap. In 2021, Linda was recognized and awarded the "Hometown Hero" award by the Seattle Mariners, for her philanthropic work Bloodworks NW during the COVID-19 pandemic. Linda is also a stroke and brain aneurysm survivor, and her story of strength and resilience has been featured in the "50/50 Friendship Flow", "Ask Yourself This" by Shari Leid and on several podcasts, including "Power Moment" with Paula Lamas. She is also part of an all-women's sailing team.
