Background: Dr. Donald Felder is a lifelong resident of Seattle and former Principle with Seattle Public Schools. For background, teaching, coaching, and leadership is his forte, and he has a deep love for using data to harvest discoveries, unfolding recommendations, and implementing transformational plans. Dr. Felder defends the educational rights of students using Washington State's constitution, its legislation, and those policies outlining provisions for ample learning opportunities to all children. Combining the knowledge, he is guiding Districts in the art of reimagining how community partnerships are employed in schools. His leadership, as an educational consultant, fosters synergy for teams to thrive under the umbrella of a common vision. This picture reveals Dr. Felder's love for serving those establishing social justice structures. From one service partner to another, it is reported that Dr Felder leads from his heart to reach mindfulness actions and outcomes.

RESUME
DONALD T. FELDER, Ph.D.

VISION: To advocate within organizations for authentic community partnerships, guiding efforts to empower citizens to create and maintain safe neighborhoods, and become caretakers of their schools.

PROFILE: My career reflects this vision and my experiences include:

- Participated on a research team to produce a landscape analysis report for the City of Seattle (Department of Education Early Learning pre-school programs) to know the impact of its zero suspension policy.
- Facilitating community forums, bridging conversations between University of Washington's teacher candidates, seasoned educators, parents, community advocates, and former students of Seattle Public Schools;
- Providing consulting services and guidance to the principals and teachers in the Victory School District, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, as well as in King, Snohomish and Pierce counties
- Mentoring inspiring administrators in the fields of education, and community organizing;
- Served as a consultant with Seattle Public Schools, proposing recommendations to reduce the cost of transporting students by creating interdisciplinary relationships of duties between the departments of Transportation and Special Education.
- Providing consulting services to schools, and community organizations in the Northwest Region;
- Mediating agreements between school officials, families and children;
- Orchestrating partnerships in Seattle's African American communities, used strategies to advancing their concerns, creating a common focus for managing learning programs, and promoting strategies for reforming comprehensive and progressive schools;
- Offering local and national teacher workshops on behalf of the Black Child Development Institute and National Association of Black Educators, including organizing educational summits in King County;
- Taught multicultural courses at Antioch University;
- Coached and supervised educational candidates to obtain a teaching or administrative certificate;
- Evaluating school plans and aligning goals to foster systemic change;
- Established community learning centers; promoted educational options for challenging students, finding ways to engage students in meaningful learning experiences;
- Assisting school teams in their interpretation of student and parent survey data, establishing protocols for measuring successes and identifying areas for further effort; de-

- developing procedures for understanding and correcting student behavior and academic failure;
- Worked directly with teachers to eliminate disproportionality, creating safe classrooms, and promoting effective teaching procedures;
- Designing staff development workshops, when recruited to address school visioning, behavior/classroom management, instructional pedagogies, and family engagement.
- Studying prominent schools that successfully completed reform of their K-12 process;
- Served as a principal and administrator for 20 years with Seattle Public Schools, and many years as a classroom teacher at the elementary and secondary levels;
